Steel Stock Back to Normal

The eyes of the steelmaking and financial worlds are on the Quad-Cities and Washington following announcement in Monday's issue that an agreement in principle has been reached for Granite City Steel Co. to be merged into the National Steel Corp.

The two companies are submitting data relating to the proposed merger to the U. S. Department of Justice for its review. Officials of the Justice Department declined comment this week other than to say "it can be assumed" that their Antitrust Division will study the merger plan. No hint has been given as to how soon the review will be made. It was learned this morning. The Press-Record noted Monday that, if the federal government gives direct or tacit approval, the boards of directors of the two firms and Granite City Steel's 17,728 shareholders will be asked to give their ratification. It is possible Granite City Steel Co. might retain that name as a wholly-owned subsidiary. Each stockholder of the local company would be issued one share of National capital stock for a one-two-and-one-quarter share of Granite City common stock held.

In a major article on Tuesday, the Wall Street Journal said "industry analysts are stunned" by the plan. It concluded that federal approval is far from certain and that such approval, if given, might "touch off a wave of steel company mergers."

While some of the "shock waves" are still reverberating, others have begun to subside—at least until Washington's decision is announced.

Granite City Steel Co. stock had closed at $18 1/2 prior to the announcement and ended at $17 1/2 late Monday afternoon. By last night, it had settled back at the original $18 1/2 level. Stock of National Steel Corp., which is based in Pittsburgh, Pa., advanced from $44 1/2 to $45 1/2, and yesterday evening dropped to $44 1/2.

National Steel's major holding is the Weirton Steel Co., Weirton, W. Va., Great Lakes Steel Co., Detroit, Mich., and Midwest Steel Co., Portage, Ind.

With their 1970 shipments combined, National (6,238,000 tons) and Granite City Steel (250,000 tons) instead of ranking fourth and eleventh largest would be third biggest in the industry, behind No. 1 U. S. Steel and No. 2 Bethlehem Steel Corp.

Third at present is Republic Steel Corp., which shipped 6,700,000 tons last year. The 1970 sales totals were $1,365,000,000 for Republic and $1,444,000,000 for National-Granite City.

President Nixon's Council of Economic Advisors, which has a steel study in progress, may recommend antitrust clearance to merge some smaller firms into larger ones. The goal would be to encourage competition at the top and to eliminate old, high-cost plants which operate below capacity.

Profits Not Satisfactory Granite City Steel in the mid-1960s carried out a massive expansion-modernization program which reduced profits when operating and break-even problems occurred.

Chairman N. P. Veeder and President L. F. Guley said in their 1970 annual report that the year "fell short of expectations and was not a satisfactory year for Granite City Steel or the steel industry."

Because the local plant does not precisely fit the traditional picture of a company in difficulty, many feel that federal approval of a merger would set a precedent.

National would be able to extend its market penetration farther into the Midwest and South and would obtain a new source of semi-finished steel for its much-expanded rolling mill facilities at Portage, which has no primary steelmaking and is supplied from Detroit.

There are differences in product lines as well as the plant geographical locations. However, National does sell steel in this area and both it and Granite City Steel are suppliers to the automotive industry.

There is speculation that capital available to the merged firms would be used to install a third blast furnace to supply iron for GC Steel's new steel furnaces, and also to build continuous casting facilities for fuller use of the local hot strip mill.

Daylight Saving Time will become effective this weekend, providing an extra hour of daylight during the summer months.

Quad-Cities will move their clocks ahead an hour before 1 a.m. Saturday night. Officially, the "fast-time" becomes effective at 2 a.m. Sunday.

It will be a reminder in effect until the last Sunday of October when standard time will be resumed and Quad-Cities will regain the hour of sleep they will lose this weekend.

Staicoff, Sasyk Tickets Elected

Thomas Staicoff, incumbent president of the Ponton Beach Village Board, and four members of his Civic Action Party ticket, won election to the five village board posts open to balloting in Tuesday's municipal election.

In the city of Madison, the only other area in which there was opposition for city posts, five aldermanic seats were won by an incumbent ticket of candidates backed by the City Organization and by Mayor Mike Sasyk.

Four incumbent aldermen of Venice were re-elected without opposition, as were two members of the Granite City Park District.

Staicoff defeated Chester E. Dean, 424 E. Lake Drive, who was the only opposition candidate on the ballot, by a vote of 316 to 238. Ponton Beach balloting was in only one precinct polling place located at the Long Lake Fire Hall.

Three candidates running with Dean in a last-minute write-in campaign made a strong showing against Staicoff's ticket.

Elected village clerk was Carl E. Hackney, 4174 Breckenridge Lane, who ran with Staicoff on the Civic Action Party ticket. He polled 294 votes to 213 written votes cast for Mrs. Kathleen Bledsoe who campaigned with Dean's backing.

Civic Action Party candidates who were elected trustees of the village board are Dr. Dean R. O'Connell, incumbent, 235 votes; Loren L. Madison, 229 votes; and John D. Cole, 305 votes.

They defeated Dean's two written candidates, Raymond Gaudette, 213 votes, and Floyd D. Moss, 212 votes.

Staicoff was re-elected to his third four-year term as board president. He has been president since the village was founded in 1963. Dean formerly was a trustee of the village, serving from 1963 through 1965.

Rechester was re-elected to his second term, while Madison and Cole are newcomers to the village board, making their first bids for public offices in Tuesday's election.

Await Airport Site Selection

By GARY SCHNEIDER Press-Record Staff Writer

With the selection of a tentative Illinois site for a proposed new metropolitan area airport expected to be announced at any time, Missouri officials are making last-ditch efforts to block approval of a site on the Illinois side of the river.

The latest Missouri move was made Tuesday in filing an amendment to a bill now pending in the Missouri State Senate.

The amendment would authorize the Public Service Commission to deal with other states in investigations and studies on mutual problems.

It also gives the PSC authority to issue certificates of convenience and necessity to intrastate airlines.

If the amendment were approved, the PSC would be able to grant permits for flights between major Missouri cities only to those airlines which would use Lambert Field or include those using an Illinois airport.

The primary impact of the bill would be upon airlines flying the Kansas City, Mo., to St. Louis route, but also would regulate airlines with stops at St. Louis and Kansas City, Mo.

Meanwhile, St. Louis Mayor A. J. C. Varnhagen has strengthened his stand in favor of the Illinois site for the $350 million facility.

In his State of the City address Tuesday, Mayor Cavanaugh said that an Illinois airport is the only means by which downtown St. Louis may be preserved.

He said that placing the new facility near Cedar Hill in Jefferson County, Mo., or Fort Smith in St. Charles County, Mo., would cause business to move to the west. An Illinois site would keep business in the present St. Louis downtown area.

Deferrals Ended and Recount Tabled

By HARRY BARNES Press-Record Staff Writer

A long-standing practice of the Granite City Council to postpone final action on vital issues by use of a "deferral" motion was ruled illegal Monday night as a bloc of aldermen sought to delay action on a demand for a recount of votes cast in the April 6 municipal election in the Seventh Ward.

The ruling by City Attorney Leon Scroggins was met by protests from several aldermen who noted council members have been "deferring issues for many years."

The attorney's opinion resulted in at least two heated arguments in the council chamber. Mayor Donald Partney applied Scroggins' opinion in refusing to recognize deferral motions on subsequent issues.

The new conflict over council procedure broke on the council floor when City Clerk Robert Stevens presented to the council a demand for a vote recount filed with him by George Gordon, 2384 Boyle Ave., who was defeated by a three-vote margin in the Seventh Ward on the basis of unofficial returns.

As Stevens finished reading Gordon's two-page petition, aldermen Walter Noyen and James Schuler, both opponents of the city election, moved to defer action on the recount demand because the canvass of the April 6 voting had not been made.

Mayor Partney questioned the right of deferral as an original motion. In the past, deferral motions were made only on issues that had advanced to final passage stage.

At this point the mayor asked if it were proper to defer action without a previous motion having been made.

Before Scroggins could answer, Alderman Walter Noyen broke in with the comment that "this (recount) should be ordered by a circuit judge and not done by the council."

Alderman Sam Whitmer responded that this man (Gordon) was beaten by only three votes and he should have a recount. We have had recounts before and the council counted the votes without any court action. The last time we had a recount the mayor had a complaint of three make the count."

Whitmer added that "We may have had some people vote who were not registered or entitled to vote."

Alderman William Dallis came to Gordon's support by pointing out that he had a similar experience. He said he had had some people vote who told me it would cost over $500 to complete a recount. I didn't have it. I checked the poll book and the records myself.

Whitmer added that "We may have had some people vote who were not registered or entitled to vote."

CONSTRUCTION WEATHER has arrived and one of the current Quad-City projects is installation of foundations for a $500,000 pumping station and water storage tank at the rear of the Nameoki Village Shopping Center. The East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. tank will have a capacity of two million gallons and the booster station will have automatic pumping capabilities for stabilizing pressure at an hourly usage rate of up to 240,000 gallons. Purpose is to improve fire protection reserves and service pressure. M. H. Wolfe & Co. workmen expect to complete the project in September.

Approve 124-Home Plan

Overriding objections that annexation of a 31-acre tract of Nameoki township land proposed for residential development would add considerably to the city's cost of improving Maryville Road, the Granite City Council Monday night approved an ordinance to rezone and annex the tract.

The ordinance, presented by Alderman Walter Noyen who had favored the annexation earlier in the meeting by Mayor Donald Partney, applied Scroggins' opinion in refusing to recognize deferral motions on subsequent issues.

The new conflict over council procedure broke on the council floor when City Clerk Robert Stevens presented to the council a demand for a vote recount filed with him by George Gordon, 2384 Boyle Ave., who was defeated by a three-vote margin in the Seventh Ward on the basis of unofficial returns.

Road through annexation, the city will be required to pay an additional $35,000 share in the improvement cost for which the county now has appropriated $1.5 million and the city $200,000.

The two aldermen originally claimed that the additional cost would amount to $72,000, but Mayor Partney pointed out the county still would pay one-half of the city share. Other aldermen said the cost of $35,000 was not too great to add substantially to the city's tax base through the annexation.

Don Mega, 2433 St. Clair Ave., a resident near the annexed area, was allowed to address the council in opposition to the proposal. He objected primarily to the type of construction proposed for homes to be built in the area. He drew criticism from Noyen when he remarked that he did not see how the city could absorb 124 home of this type.

As the discussion closed, Noyen moved for suspension of rules to place the ordinance on final passage. Schuler, Partney and Moerlein voted against the suspension. On the motion to place the bill on final passage, Partney moved for deferral.

Mayor Partney, pointing out that the city attorney had held deferral procedure improper, ruled the motion out of order. Partney objected and noted that the attorney's ruling was given in the discussion of the suspension. On the motion to place the bill on final passage, Partney moved for deferral.

Venice Plans to Clean Entire Sewer System

A complete survey of the Venice sewer system is to be conducted in the near future with the aim of cleaning the sewers throughout the city, according to plans announced at a City Council meeting Tuesday night.

Alderman Louis Ratliff reported that a survey has been made by Edward Juneau of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab, city consulting engineer and a sewer expert, of the North Venice area where some sewers were found to be half filled with sediment.

Local equipment is unable to handle it, he added. Mayor John Lee said all of the sewers in the city will be cleaned, though some of the larger lines are flowing freely. They were last cleaned in 1953.

Rotary Club Honors Madison High Students

Madison high school students that have been aiding a special tutoring program at Harris elementary school were guests of honor at the Madison Rotary Club meeting Wednesday noon at the Madison Recreation Center.

Honored guests were Robert Mangoff, Jim Shrader, Wanda Shelton, Debby Gravelle, Debbie Holt, Patricia Steiner, Barbara Brown, Janette Bryant, Bonnie Willmirth, Linda Wilson and Juana Hand.

These students have worked after school since Oct. 5, 1970, to help second and third graders having problems with reading and arithmetic. The students received no pay and have given an average of three hours per week.

Linda Wilson spoke to the club and explained how they worked with the children individually and sometimes in small groups. Mrs. Valerie Stevens who plays piano for the club every Wednesday noon, presented special songs with anti-pollution messages.

Venice School Calendar For 1971-72 Adopted

Classes will not be held tomorrow at Venice Lincoln Technical Center with administrative staff members and instructors attending an "in service" conference at Lincoln School in Effingham.

Permission to close the adult vocational center was granted by the Venice Board of Education at a meeting Monday night. Board members also adopted a tentative calendar for the 1971-72 school year.

The tentative calendar calls for a total of 183 school attendance days, starting Aug. 23 and concluding May 26. Teachers workshop day is set for Jan. 28, 1972, and County Institute Day on March 22. A new holiday added next year will be Jan. 14, set in the schedule in observance of Dr. Martin Luther King's Birthday.

Venice Superintendent John O. Pier explained the 183-day calendar exceeds state requirements for mandatory school attendance by five days, enabling the board to authorize holidays for students and teachers if not needed for emergency closings. Ninety-six school days are listed for the first semester, which starts Aug. 23 and ends Jan. 21, while the second semester, beginning Jan. 24 and terminating May 26, includes 87 school days.

The tentative school calendar lists the following dates and information:

Aug. 23—First Day of school (Monday); Sept. 6—Labor Day (school dismissed); Oct. 8—end of first six-week grade period (33 days); Oct. 11—Columbus Birthday Observation (school dismissed); Oct. 25—Veteran's Day Observation (school dismissed); Nov. 24—end of second six-week grade period (33 days); Nov. 25-26—Thanksgiving holidays (school dismissed); Dec. 22—last day of school before Christmas.

Jan. 3—First day of school after New Year; Jan. 14—Dr. Martin Luther King's Birthday Observation (school dismissed); Jan. 21—end of third six-week grade period (32 days); Jan. 24—end of first semester (88 days); Jan. 28—Teachers Workshop Day; Feb. 7—Lincoln's Birthday Observation (school dismissed); March 3—end of fourth six-week period (29 days); March 22—County Institute; March 31—Good Friday (school dismissed); April 14—end of fifth six-week period (28 days); May 26—end of sixth six-week period (30 days); and last day of school (183 days).

Warnings on Minibike Usage Are Effective

Warnings on unlawful operations of minibikes on public streets apparently are producing results, according to Quad City and Madison County officials.

County Sheriff John Maeras reported that complaints of violations have dropped from eight to 10 a day and up to 45 on weekends to an average of three or four.

Maeras and Police Chief Ronald Veizer of Granite City last week issued minimum legal requirements for registration of a motor vehicle with the secretary of state before the minibikes could be used on public roads and highways. Driver's licenses also are required.

Celebration Committee to OK Jubilee Sales, Events

A resolution calling for approval by Granite City's Jubilee Celebration Committee of all items sold as 75th anniversary commemorative, and of all events and activities pertaining to the celebration, was adopted by the Granite City Council Monday night.

The resolution points out that a Celebration Committee has been formed to carry out plans for commemorating the city's 75th anniversary, and notes that "it is the desire of all who support this event (celebration) be a self-sustaining one financially."

The resolution said: "Be it hereby known that the Celebration Committee anticipates revenue from such projects as admissions to a historical Spectacle and historical program advertising booklet, a carnival and the sale of such novelties and souvenirs as booster badges, membership certificates commemorative trains, hats, bonnets, old fashioned wearing apparel, plus ties, plates, and similar items. Be it hereby requested that no individual, company, or organization will sell, trade, or give away anything that has a Celebration reference or connotation without first obtaining written permission from the Celebration Committee, and that no permits, franchises, or privileges pertaining to Celebration activities will be granted to anyone by the City of Granite City unless such written permission is granted by the aforementioned 75th Anniversary Celebration Committee."

Parking Lot Mishap

The auto of Paul D. Stone, 4241 Marigold Drive, pulling into a parking space in the Nameeki Village Shopping Center at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, struck the left side of the parked auto of Larry M. Rich, 2809 Wayne Ave., causing minor damage to both autos, according to a police report.

Eight Injured in Seven Accidents

Eight persons were injured in seven accidents reported to Quad-City authorities since Monday.

Four persons were injured when an auto driven by Bernice DeRousse, 57, of 2462 Cleveland Blvd., attempted a left turn off East Chain of Rocks Road onto Route 157 and collided with the northbound auto of Lynn Rutter, 21, of Florissant, Mo., at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. DeRousse and two passengers, Mrs. Dorothy Ashford, 50, of 143 Kinder Lane, Mitchell, and Mrs. Cleo Buttry, 44, of 2591 Waterman Ave., were enroute to a Secretary Week dinner at the Sunset Hills Country Club.

The four were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital. Mrs. DeRousse was admitted with a large hematoma above the left eye, abrasions to the left foot, right leg and arm and pain in the neck, chest and abdomen.

Mrs. Ashford was admitted with lacerations of the right hand and leg and left ear, and abrasions to the knees and ankles. Mrs. Buttry was treated for hematoma to the forehead and right lower leg and was released following x-rays.

2-Year-Old Hurt
A 2-year-old girl was injured when the auto in which she was riding struck the rear of another auto at Mercedia and Calhoun avenues in Venice at 4:40 p.m. Monday.

Beth Freeman was a passenger in the auto driven by Carmen E. Freeman, 1629 Bissell Ave., Venice when it struck the rear of the auto of Quintin D. Porter, 1040 Logan St., Venice. Police reported the child bit her lip when the autos collided.

The rear of Porter's auto was damaged extensively and the front end of the Freeman auto received minor damages. Five-year-old Douglas Davis of Venice was injured when he ran from the east curb on Klein Street near Broadway in Venice and was bumped by the northbound auto of Wellington Dow, 1014 Calhoun Ave., Venice, at 1:15 p.m. Tuesday.

Davis, the son of Ulas Davis, 25 Leo Wright Homes, Venice, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was examined and released.

Two Granite City women were injured when their east-bound auto collided with the auto of Annie Anderson, East St. Louis, westbound on Collins-

Venice School Board Renames Leo Davinroy

Leroy A. Davinroy, who was re-elected to the Venice Board of Education for a three-year term in the April 10 school district election, was renamed as board president at the annual reorganization meeting Monday night.

Prior to the session, board members canvassed returns from the district election, which resulted in incumbents Elmer Taylor, Jack Tolliver and Davinroy, who ran unopposed, being returned to the board for three-year terms.

All three were formally seated at Monday's meeting. The board named as its secretary Willie C. Johnson, who succeeds Fred Durr Jr. The secretary post in the Venice district, always assigned to a board member, pays a monthly salary of $150.

Donald Phillips was a reappointed board treasurer at this month.

Reservation Deadline For Slavic Conference
Quad-Cityans may make reservations this week and Monday for the Slavic and East European Conference to be held from 4 p.m. to 11 p.m. Thursday, April 29, at SIU-SW.

Checks payable to SIU, for $4 per adult and $2 per child, must be mailed to Mrs. Sheila S. Stinson, SAEF Executive Secretary, Lovejoy Library, SIU, Edwardsville, Ill. 62025.

The meeting will include a seminar on Slavic source materials, a dinner, the annual Slavic Friends business session, entertainment, music and a talk by Robert V. Allen, U.S. Library of Congress area specialist, Slavic and Central European Division.

Joseph Mathenia, 73, Dies in Hospital

Joseph W. Mathenia, 73, of 206 Ruggeri Building, East St. Louis, father of three Granite Cityans, died at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday at St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis. He had been ill with a heart condition.

He was a native of Harding County, Tenn.

Mr. Mathenia was a retired maintenance man at the General American Life Insurance Co., St. Louis.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Willie Mathenia, six daughters, Mrs. Irene Adams of Granite City, Mrs. George (Lois) Mathenia of Granite City, Mrs. Joseph (Lela Mae) Cacciano of Belleville, Mrs. Maybelle Young of California, Mrs. Goldie Johnson of Caruthersville, Mo., Mrs. Ruby Mann of Huber Springs, Ark.; two sons, Frank Mathenia of Granite City and Joseph Mathenia, Caruthersville, Mo.; two brothers, Daniel and James Mathenia; six sisters, Rosie, Evelyn, Flossie, Dallas, Lorene and Florine; 36 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Dr. Kochman Outlines Future of SIU-SW

About 85 persons attended a Chamber of Commerce of the Tri-Cities-Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, dinner meeting yesterday at the Sunset Hills Country Club to hear Dr. Andrew J. Kochman, vice chancellor of SIU-SW, discuss recent and planned changes at the local campus.

Kochman told the group that higher education, particularly at SIU-SW, will undergo great changes in the next few years. He cited general administration, curriculum planning, student-faculty relationships, facility utilization and attitudes toward education as the areas which will show the greatest changes.

Entertainment for the meeting was provided by a group of 12 young violinists, between the ages of 3 and 10 years, under the direction of Dr. John D. Kendall of the Fine Arts Division of SIU-SW.

At Froemming, president of the chamber, acted as master of ceremonies, and Howard W. Kaseberg, past president, delivered the invocation.

Metering Tank Failure Causes Power Outage

Electrical power in the northwest section of Granite City and the Pontoon Road-Nameoki area was interrupted at 8:11 a.m. today when a metering tank failed at A. O. Smith Corp. Service was resumed to affected points in about 30 minutes, after Illinois Power crews isolated the problem and picked up related lines, a spokesman for the utility company explained.

The outage failure resulted in complete loss of electrical power at the A. O. Smith plant and the Colonades Nursing Home, in addition to private residences in the Nameoki area. A metering tank serves a similar purpose to a transformer, the IPC spokesman said.

Bill to End SIU Board

Sen. W. C. (R. Pontiac) on Tuesday filed a bill to abolish the boards of trustees of Southern Illinois University and the University of Illinois. The schools would be placed under other existing joint governing boards.

11 Major Crimes Reported in Quad-Cities

Eleven cases of burglary and theft were reported to Quad-City area police this week. Two juveniles, 13 and 14, suspected of purse snatching, were caught following a motorcycle auto chase after 9:30 p.m. Wednesday.

The incident occurred as Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sheffer of Wayneville, Mo., left the Cayuga Temple in West Granite City. Mrs. Sheffer set her purse on the front seat of their car.

Someone grabbed it, hopped on a motorcycle behind the driver and took off. The husband gave chase, extending through the Prather Junior High School lot, into the field in back of the school and to a home in the 2600 block of Missouri where the two youths ran into a house. They were taken into custody by police. Their father refused to take them from jail.

The purse contained $60 in cash and $300 in traveler's checks.

Wallet Snatched
Malvina Patterson, 2617 Charles St., reported at 12:30 p.m. Monday that her leather wallet was snatched from her purse by a large woman who posted her as she was shopping at the Woolworth Store, 19th Street and Edison Avenue. It contained $75, her Social Security card, medicare card, photographs and personal papers.

An employee of B. F. Goodrich, 23rd Street and Madison Avenue, reported to police that $307 was taken from the cash register at the store between 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Laurence Rhodes, 131 Lee Avenue, reported to police Monday that $600 Wright Homes, Venice, reported to police Monday that his 1966 auto was stolen from his home sometime during the weekend.

The auto of Lillian Brackett, Collinsville, which was stolen in Venice April 13, was recovered by Madison police at 5:30 p.m. yesterday in the 900 block of Webster Street, Madison. The battery and radiator of the auto had been removed.

Necklace, Watch Stolen
A $160 gold diamond pecklace and an $80 watch was stolen from the bedroom of the home of Linda Ortiz, 2318 State St., after April 12, she reported at 12:10 a.m. Tuesday.

Danny R. Towery, 29, of East St. Louis, was charged with theft of less than $150 in connection with the shoplifting of a pair of walking shorts and a pair of swim trunks from the W. T. Grant Store at 6:40 p.m. Wednesday. Police reported. He was released on $25 cash bail.

A strand of cut glass beads with matching earrings and a diamond ring were stolen in a burglary at the apartment of Jeanne Whittington, 2215 Washington Ave., after 6:30 a.m. Wednesday, she reported at 5:15 p.m. Entry was gained by forcing a screen and opening the rear door.

Three wheels and tires, an alternator and battery were stolen from the Granite City Dodge Agency, 1911 Madison Ave., while it was parked at the rear of the lot during the night. It was reported at 12:35 p.m. Wednesday.

A stereo tape player valued at $79 was stolen from the auto of Doyce Graham, 2156 Miracle Ave., while it was parked at the Tri-Mor Bowl. It was reported at 12:20 a.m. today. Entry was gained by forcing the left wing window.

Fifteen records were stolen by a youthful shoplifter who ran out of the Woolworth Store, 19th Street and Edison Avenue, and headed up an alley. It was reported at 7 p.m. Monday.

Venice Benefit Dinner
Venice residents and other Quad-Cityans are being invited to a $100-a-plate ($125 a couple) dinner at Ruggeri's in St. Louis Monday to raise $20,000 to restore the 17th-century Church of Santa Maria del Derelitti in Venice, Italy. The Italian ambassador to the U. S. will attend and there will be appropriate food, decorations and entertainment.

East Bank Players 'The Music Man' In First Showing Friday, Saturday

Professor Harold Hill, the "hottest band instrument salesman in the Midwest," and 36 pseudo-residents of River City, Iowa, arrive in town tomorrow to start a four-performance stand at the Granite City Elks Club.

Central character in the Broadway hit show, "The Music Man" by Meredith Wilson, is the professor, a con man, a bewitched, beguiled, but eventually wised-up River City people will perform the magic musical for local audiences at 8:15 p.m. Friday and Saturday in the Grand Ballroom of the Elks Club, 1329 Niedringhaus Ave.

The show, presented by the East Bank Players, the Quad City area's community theatre group, will be repeated at the same hour and location next Friday and Saturday, April 30 and May 1.

Although a "complete sell-out" is predicted for next weekend's performances by the East Bank Players, the show, which is the most popular ticket still remain for tomorrow and Saturday presentations. Tickets, priced at $2 each for adults and $1 for students, may be purchased from Players, members or at the Elks Club, Mrs. Milli Heelscher, director, said today.

The audience will be seated in a cabaret-style setting, an innovation in theatre-going here, when introduced by the East Bank Players last spring. The table seating arrangement permits beverages and snacks to be served from the Elks Club before, during intermission and after the show.

"The Music Man," set in 1912, opens with a chanting group of traveling salesmen in a bumpy day coach on a Rock Island train as it approaches the fictional town of River City, Iowa. The salesmen exchange shop talk in an antiphony that produces the "chuggety-chug" of a steam locomotive.

One of the salesmen is "Professor" Harold Hill, who poses as a music man, but actually is a swindler, a fraud and a spell-binding musical con man. The professor, portrayed by William Heelscher, whips up the River City citizenry over the perils of a pea table in their community and induces them to subscribe for instruments and uniforms "to put the kids in a more wholesome attitude of playing in a brass band."

His fast-talking spiel and jaunty confidence eventually endear the professor to the mayor and others, but Marian Paroo, the town's spinster librarian, played by Carol Humphrey, is highly suspicious. She is the only one who doubts the professor's claims to be a music man. Hill encounters Charlie Cowie, portrayed by Hank Lamb, another con-man working the city, and the show unfolds with related peaks into River City life—a small girl sourly practices the piano; a boy with a lisp overcoming his shyness and breaking into song; a barbershop quartet enjoying life and spreading harmony; a school gym hoodlum; and the irrepressible Hill singing about the evils of "poor" and the variety of adjectives such as "swell."

The townspeople become jittery when the promised instruments don't arrive and Hill is about to leave town on a night train when he is stopped by the East Bank Players show. Tiny youngsters in second row at left is Dawn Lamb. Next to her are Diane Callender and Donna Vail. Seated in front, from left to right, are Gretchen Heelscher, Bonnie Luebbert and Billy Hurcoy.

and I found seven people voting from the same address. It may be he can find a lot of things himself."

Scroggins then told the council: "In the past I have watched this council defer many issues on a motion by two members of the council, but I cannot find in the Roberts Rules of Orders or in the Election Code any authority for such action. I can find no provision for a deferral in the City Code."

He added that he also was unable to find any legal authority in either the Election Code or the Municipal Code for a vote recount by the council. He said the statute provides that the city council shall canvass the vote of a city election.

Asked why he had not ruled against deferral motions previously, Scroggins replied: "I have never been asked for an opinion on the matter."

Out of Order
Because of Scroggins' opinion, Mayor Partney ruled Dawes' motion for deferral out of order.

Alderman R. E. Robertson asked if "this means none of these aldermen are elected until this thing is settled." He was assured this was not the case.

The mayor suggested to Dawes that he would accept a motion to "lay on the table" the vote recount demand until the next meeting which he held Monday night. Dawes made the motion which carried 15 to 1 with Alderman Paul Rutledge casting the only dissenting vote.

A few minutes later Robertson moved for a deferral of a motion concerning a report by the City Plan Commission.

The mayor ruled the motion out of order. Robertson insisted that he had the right to make such a motion, but Partney pointed out that under Scroggins' ruling a deferral motion was improper.

Robertson withdrew his deferral motion and moved to table the matter.

"Or just how would you like the motion, Mr. Mayor?" Robertson asked. "You state the motion the way you want it and I'll go along with it." The mayor accepted the tabling motion with all council members voting yes.

The canvass of the April 6 vote was conducted by the council after the meeting adjourned at 11 p.m. over protests of Mayor Partney and Alderman Roy Poulos. The canvass took about an hour, with no changes in the unofficial vote. The canvass left the vote of the Seventh Ward at 584 votes for Dawes and 581 for Gordon, and 272 for Carl B. Schoenman, a third candidate.

Luckless Trojans Drop 2 More Games

The luckless Trojans of Madison High School continued in quest of their first diamond victory as they dropped contests 3-1 to Bethalto Wednesday at home and 10-0 Monday at Roxana.

Hurler Courtney Prothro produced one of the best mound jobs for the Trojans as he held Bethalto to three hits while fanning seven. The local team garnered four hits and committed two errors, while the winners bobbled once.

The only Trojan run was scored in the third inning as first baseman Wayne Welborn opened with a walk. Bob Link followed, hitting the short stop who made an error, but Bethalto managed to pick off Welborn at second.

When Rich Harper struck out, the catcher missed the ball and Harper made it to first, moving Link to second. Link scored when Carl Turner hit a fielder's choice.

In the seventh the Trojans loaded the bases with two out but Trojan Carl Turner fanned to end the game.

"Prothro pitched an excellent ball game for us striking out seven batters, and I think the entire team played a good game," Coach Ron Davis commented. Bethalto got their hits at the right time which hurt."

Roxana Game
Roxana collected nine hits and scored one run, error, while the Trojans had six hits and a devastating eight errors.

The Trojans had a chance to score when they loaded the bases in the fifth inning but didn't make it. Trojan Ron King got on base due to an error by the Roxana shortstop, Mike Stern then singled, but King was thrown out at second.

Trojan pitcher Bert Thompson singled, putting Madison runners on first and second base. Link singled to lead the bases with two out, and Austin Lewis hit to the Roxana third baseman who tagged the bag for the third out. Madison hosts Triad today.

He said he does not feel the public is mature enough to believe people will not tolerate further abuse of the environment.

Neison pointed to the defeat of supersound transport legislation, the Air Quality Environmental Protection Laws, and strides made in delaying the Alaskan pipeline, as position gains and responsible Congressional action.

"Several serious questions have to be raised in regard to man's existence on this planet," Neison said. One question, he said, is, "How long will the U. S. and other highly industrialized nations continue to use the resources, before they are exhausted?" The senator had no answer, but the question led to another question concerning population. He asked "Can the planet support the population that will inhabit it, if population continues to grow at its present rate?"

Four Granite City residents were arrested Tuesday morning by Wood River police as one of them attempted to have a forged prescription filled at a drug store there.

Charged with obtaining a stimulant drug by use of a forged prescription was Harry Stagg, 22, who gave an address of 2606 E. 25th St.

He also was charged with resisting arrest as he fled from police outside the store and was chased until caught hiding in a parked pickup truck. He is held at the Madison County Jail in lieu of bond.

Others charged with disorderly conduct were Gary Sidwell, 22, who with a third man was in the store, and Jacqueline Nichols, 30, who was spotted in a car across the street. A hypodermic syringe and needle were found on the street.

The Nicola woman, charged with voicing loud obscenities at the Wood River police station, the location of an election polling place, also was charged with illegal transportation of liquor. The third man was released without charge.

Mother of GC Man Dies
Mrs. Ruth Frances Myers, 81, of East Alton, the mother of Hudson Myers of Granite City, died at 3:10 a.m. Wednesday at Lakeview Nursing Home in Carlinville, where she was a patient two years. Funeral services will be held Friday at Wood River.

Two Park Board Members Named To New Terms

Two incumbent members of the Granite City Park Board were re-elected without opposition in extremely light balloting Tuesday.

Barry Loman, vice-president of the Granite City Bank & Trust Co. and now vice-president of the Park Board, polled a total of 159 votes in three precinct polling locations.

Henry Gabriel, now president of the Park Board received a total of 186 votes in the three voting polls. Gabriel is president of Gabriel & Dugleroff, an architectural firm.

The vote was: Precinct One, Loman, 37 a d Gabriel, 34; Precinct Two, Loman, 67, and Gabriel, 68, and Precinct Three, Loman, 35, and Gabriel, 34.

Legislation for Arts And Cultural Center

Legislation creating an authority to operate an arts and cultural center on or near SIU-SW has been introduced in the Illinois General Assembly. It would use state tax funds to retire a $15 million construction bond issue and there would be a 13-member governing board.

In other legislative business, the House Elections Committee on Monday approved 12-4 a bill blocking college students from voting in campus community elections if they are not permanent residents.

Area Scouts Ready for Camporee at Beaver Dam

Boy Scouts from the Quad-City area have started to pack their tents, sleeping bags and cooking kits for the Uniwah District Camporee to be held this weekend at Beaver Dam State Park near Carlinville, Ill.

According to John Pekarik, district activity chairman, more than 400 Boy Scouts and leaders are expected to participate in the events that begin with registration Friday at 5 p.m., and ends Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m.

Friday evening the scouts will set up their campsites and prepare for the skill competitions on Saturday.

The skill events will include a tree identification trail, directed by Explorer Post 94, sponsored by the Granite City Steel Management Club. Post 24, sponsored by the Granite City police department, will conduct a wildlife identification activity.

Physical fitness will be the theme of the obstacle course being set up by Post 69, sponsored by the Granite City Police, and a troop tug of war which will be supervised by Explorer Post 96, sponsored by the Maryville PTA.

Another physical fitness event called "Indian Scalp" will be under the supervision of Explorer Post 6, sponsored by Concordia Lutheran Church.

Explorer Post 10-4, sponsored by the Madison Police department and Lions club, will set up conservation trail. Post 10-4 also will be in charge of security for the entire camporee.

Scouts of the Roman Catholic faith will attend a field mass Saturday at 7:30 p.m. conducted by Father Anthony Rochel.

At 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Scouts and their leaders will attend a fun type meeting under the direction of Mike Rapoff, a ministerial student and member of the First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Grand avenue.

Following church a final inspection of camp grounds will be held and ribbons will be awarded to the patrols.

In addition to the skill events Saturday patrols will be judged on how well they set up and maintain their campsites, work together as a patrol and demonstrate the Scout spirit.

The camporee is under the supervision of the district activities committee in cooperation with Dave Parrish, district camping committee chairman.

Working with the activities committee is Ted Scrum, district commissioner, G. Rollin Henn, vice-chairman of the council activities committee; Frank Kuzma, a member of the council camping committee, and Ollie Gilmore, assistant district commissioner.

Volunteers to Attach Flag Holders Saturday

Five local men representing Amvets Post 51 will undertake a lengthy chore Saturday when 100 metal flag staff holders will be attached to utility poles along Madison Avenue from 14th Street to Granite City High.

Steve Conkovich, Amvets public relations officer and chief instigator of the flag project—the object of which is to have American flags lining Madison Avenue on Memorial Day and subsequent national holidays—will head the five-man work detail Saturday.

Other volunteers from Post 51 are Ben Sanders, Charles Wilkins Jr., Rex Manninger and Adam Petras.

Sunday morning the Scouts of protestant denominations will attend a combined service under the direction of Mike Rapoff, a ministerial student and member of the First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Grand avenue.

Following church a final inspection of camp grounds will be held and ribbons will be awarded to the patrols.

In addition to the skill events Saturday patrols will be judged on how well they set up and maintain their campsites, work together as a patrol and demonstrate the Scout spirit.

thority's regular meeting Wednesday at the Sunset Hill Holiday Inn.

After authority has announced its choice of a site, the FAA will hold public hearings and make the final selection.

A 1969 St. Louis study of possible sites gives priority to a site near Columbia, Ill. Columbia is one of the three sites being studied by the Spears and Little firms. The other sites are near Troy and east of Belleville.

Columbia residents have voiced strong opposition to construction of the facility near their city and have submitted petitions containing nearly 3,000 signatures opposing use of the Columbia site. The petitions were sent to the authority and Governor Richard B. Ogilvie.

Southwestern Illinois Has A 'University' of Mine Run

By KATHY HEAD
Region 8 Tourism Council
Southwestern Illinois University student for a semester, you would probably be introduced to another institution of higher education, Mine Run University.

MRU is located in the heart of Edwardsville and is housed in the popular Vanzo's Tap Room. Its old perspectives have been broadened to welcome SIU-SW.

The Mine Run letterhead proudly signifies Vanzo's as "Edwardsville's Institution of Good Fellowship." To its members, this is the best description of its tenets.

MRU had its origin during the Depression when some of the old-timers began to gather at Vanzo's for a few beers and a lot of philosophizing about the world situation and, most important, about people.

Vanzo's, now in its third generation, is owned, and operated by Frank and Jim Vanzo, sons of Louis Vanzo.

Some of the practices developed and enjoyed at MRU go back four generations, to Jim and Frank's paternal grandfather, who was a miner.

Before coming to America in 1885, their grandparents owned a cheese shop in Italy. Wine being the primary drink, that little cheese shop was, in essence, the friendly corner saloon.

The family's first saloon was in Bunson, Ind. In the next generation, Louis Vanzo moved on to the Livingston, Ill., Big Four Hotel in 1905. Twenty years later, he moved into the Edwardsville area.

The Vanzo Hotel was located at 323 St. Louis St. It opened for business in 1933.

Soon after the repeal of Prohibition, the hotel was enhanced by the addition of a beautiful and popular beer garden. However, during the depression, the hotel was lost and the Vanzos had to start again.

In 1936, Louis and his wife opened another bar at 205 Second St.

Fried Chicken Lunches
Frank Vanzo has fond memories of the delicatessen lunch served by his mother for 45¢. Fried chicken, potato salad, cole slaw and a drink. And, he adds, "she made money."

In 1941, the Vanzos moved into the building at 110 St. Louis St., where they still reside. This site is the present "Administration Buildings" for Mine Run University.

The large light fixtures, designed as artists' paint palettes, still add to its charm.

In the early days, Vanzo's was the meeting place of old-timers, and the out-of-work miners. Today, it seems to be fashion, travel and people, art and music.

Every mode of transportation since the horse and buggy is represented by the artifacts in the tap room. In the collection are a single-bit mule collar, a ship anchor, old train and steam engine souvenirs, and even a propeller and wheel off an outdated flying machine.

Mine Run University has come a long way. It is now an organized group to which one must apply and be reviewed for membership. MRU has sweat-shirts and decals, like all universities, and even a baseball team.

From Miners to Students
In the early days, Vanzo's was the meeting place of old-timers, and the out-of-work miners. Today, it seems to be oriented to the SIU-SW students.

The two groups have merged into fellowship with little or no problem. The concepts which Vanzo's represents may well go back four generations, but there is no problem bridging the generation gap.

Vanzo's popular appeal won national acclaim from Anheuser-Busch. The bartenders proudly display the engraved silver half barrel awarded to them in 1968 for rolling 1000 half-barrels within a calendar year.

The silver container is one of only three in the entire country. For more information about tourism and the history of southwestern Illinois, write TOURISM, Box 286, Belleville, Ill. 62222.

Plan Writers' Workshop April 30 at McKendree

The 17th annual McKendree College Writers' Conference will open Friday evening, April 30, and continue through Saturday, May 1, at the college. Total cost for the two-day session is $10, with reservations limited to 100 writers.

This writing workshop will allow both professionals and novices an opportunity to gain expertise in one of their favorite areas: fiction, poetry, children's plays, columns, feature stories, books. The techniques of how to produce each will be considered.

Four writers are to be featured at the workshop session this year.

Jack Stokes will host "Writing Children's Plays." He is the author of Wiley and the Hairy Men, and of other children's plays, some produced at SIU.

Peter L. Simpson will work with the "Poetry" session. He is contributing editor to the Mid-Creek Valley Intelligencer and a book reviewer for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Clarissa Start will host a section on "Columns, Feature Stories, and Books." She is a columnist and feature writer for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and the author of three books.

Nicolas Joast will work with the "Fiction" session. He is the author or contributor to ten books, the most notable ones being Scofield Thayer and The Dial, the latter a top honor award winner.

To kick off the session, panelists Helen Church, Howard Derrickson and Mary Kimbrough, all journalists of repute, will discuss "My Favorite Experience as a Writer." At the Saturday luncheon, visiting published writers will be recognized.

The McKendree Writers' Conference was founded in 1955 by Dr. Mildred Silver, its current director is Charles Guenther. Reservations may be made by writing to Writers' Conference, McKendree College, Lebanon, Ill., 62254.

High Board Cites Security Force at SIU-SW as Model

The security force at Southern Illinois University - Southwestern campus is pointed out as a model for other campuses to follow in a report by the staff of the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

"Southern Illinois University - Southwestern has initiated a program that calls for the patrolman to carry out his duties unarmed, with certain clearly defined exceptions. The board staff was impressed with the model being developed here and encourages other campus security systems to consider this model as one alternative to present practices," the staff study says.

The study was requested by the State Board of Higher Education in January, after state universities had asked for substantial increases in appropriations for security services.

During the study, which involved visits to most state university campuses for discussions with administrators and security officers, the board staff said it found need for the adoption of the model.

The security force at Southern Illinois University - Southwestern campus is pointed out as a model for other campuses to follow in a report by the staff of the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

The BHE staff also recommends greater representation of minority groups on campus security forces. At Southwestern, five of the 26 patrolmen are from minority groups.

The report says the campus security officer's role has changed rapidly, requiring advanced training and education. What began as a simple police role now requires the added dimension of broad-gauged human relations skills," the report says.

Security officers at Southwestern have not worn guns, except under special circumstances, since May, 1970. The Faculty Senate, which has since been consolidated into a new University Senate, recommended that guns not be worn. This policy was endorsed and activated by Chancellor John S. Rendleman.

The Southwestern campus security unit includes the director and 26 men, 18 of whom are patrolmen who handle all security details for the campus which includes 13,700 students, 1,749 academic and nonacademic employees at Southwestern, Alton and East St. Louis.

Percy Program Would Improve Elderly Status

Sen. Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.) has introduced a comprehensive and far-reaching program to improve housing, health care, recreation, employment and transportation opportunities for America's elderly citizens.

In a statement on the Senate floor, Percy said:

"Twenty million elderly Americans today constitute one of this nation's most shamefully neglected minorities. We must forge new and better programs to end the isolation and loneliness of the aged and meet their special needs in areas such as health, housing, transportation and income maintenance."

Percy's proposals would:

1. Establish counseling and training services as well as research activities in the Department of Labor to aid workers 45 years of age and over who are unemployed or seeking new employment.
2. Permit the deduction of all medical care expenses for taxpayers over age 65, and exempt from Social Security taxes earned income up to $1,690 for both employed and self-employed individuals over age 65.
3. Cover prescription drugs under Medicare at no cost to the consumer.
4. Construct and maintain multi-purpose community centers, to provide such services as low-cost meals, legal and employment counseling and social, educational, and cultural programs for the elderly.
5. Provide for half-fares for the elderly on transit facilities as well as on buses, trains, and planes with cross state lines during non-peak hours.
6. Make it a federal crime to deny automobile liability and personal injury insurance to any person over age 65 solely on the grounds of age.
7. Continue and upgrade those housing programs which have proven valuable for the elderly, namely, sections 202 and 231 of the National Housing Act and coordinate more effective housing programs for the elderly.

Marine Corps Dance Saturday at VFW Hall

The public is invited to attend a benefit dance sponsored by the Quad-City Detachment of the Marine Corps League set for 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Saturday at the VFW Hall, 21st Street and Washington Avenue.

Tickets may be obtained in advance from detachment members and at the VFW Hall, or purchased at the door the evening of the dance. James Nolen, commander said. Ticket price of $6.00 includes admission fee, beverages and entertainment, he added.

Music for dancing will be furnished by the Art LaVelle orchestra. Proceeds derived from the dance project will fund the charitable activities of the veterans' group, Nolen said.

Varied 'Earth Day' Activities Tomorrow

Speakers from government, business and the university will discuss topics ranging from air pollution to organic gardening at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Friday. It's Earth Day.

According to chairman Donna Mitten of the SIU Steering Committee for Earth Day the schedule includes:

At 10:30 a.m. a panel discussion will be held in the University Center Ballroom on "Respective Roles of Local, State and Federal Government in Pollution Abatement." Speakers are Dr. Robert Perman of the Federal Environmental Protection Agency, Tony Telford, of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and Prof. J. Edmund White of the SIU-SW chemistry faculty.

In the Goshen Lounge of the University Center, beginning at 11:30 will be a panel on "Problems in Solid Waste Disposal." Speakers will be Prof. Ron Yarborough of the SIU-SW earth sciences faculty and two men from the U.S. Brewers Association, Inc., John J. Varda and Ronald Morris.

At 12:30 p.m. in the Goshen Lounge the topic will be about organic gardening. Speakers included are Steve Brown, a staff assistant in academic affairs; Ed Ceres, mass communications; Carol Mayer, student art major; Paul Adkins, art faculty member, and biology student Bob Grinstead.

At noon, in the same lounge area, there will be a panel discussion of population problems. Panel members include Prof.

Richard Parker of Science and Technology, Prof. Herb Mich, sociology and Mrs. Annette Oakwood from Planned Parenthood.

Field Trip Planned

At 12:30 p.m. there will be a short field trip for interested persons to the campus sanitation plant. John Taylor will direct the tour.

At 1 p.m. in the Goshen Lounge a panel will convene to discuss organic gardening. Speakers included are Steve Brown, a staff assistant in academic affairs; Ed Ceres, mass communications; Carol Mayer, student art major; Paul Adkins, art faculty member, and biology student Bob Grinstead.

Following the panel there will be a field trip to an organic gardening site.

At 1:15 on the second floor of the University Center there will be an environmental planning conference in the River Rooms. Environmental Health and Planning will be the topic of William Weismantel of the earth sciences faculty. His session will be in the Mississippi Room.

Open Space, Recreation, Metropolitan Living Patterns, Settlement and Readjustment will be discussed in the Missouri Room with Prof. Robert Koepke of earth sciences.

Prof. Dorothy J. Gore of earth sciences will be discussing "Environmental Geology as it Affects Zoning, Land Use, Waste Disposal" in the Ohio Room.

At 1:30 p.m. a panel discussing air pollution will convene in the Goshen Lounge. Members of the panel will be Prof. Christopher E. Barthel of environmental studies, Prof. Steve Hall of chemistry and Ed Hume, SIU-SW horticulturist.

At 2 p.m. there will be a field trip to campus areas conducted by Prof. Richard Keating of the biology faculty.

Local Problems Topic

At that same hour a panel will meet to discuss "Local Problems" in the Goshen Lounge. Members of the panel will be George Arnold of SIU's Regional and Urban Development Studies Services and Jerry Lavelle, Edwardsville city engineer.

A field trip will leave for Tower Lake on the campus at 2:30 p.m. Prof. Jamie Thompson of the biology faculty is in charge.

Also at 2:30 James Keenher, assistant Illinois attorney general and chief, southern regional environmental control division, will speak in the ballroom of the University Center. A reception is planned for the Ballroom beginning at 3:30 p.m.

Exhibits will also be up during the day from many organizations.

Committee chairmen for Earth day are: public relations—Carl Adams, Alton; field trips—Alpha Phi Omega, Mark Beatty, Edwardsville; official recognition—Rex Hermsmeider, Edwardsville; physical arrangements—Terry Bast, Edwardsville; bookstore—Dennis Oetrick, St. Louis, and high school invitations—Teresa Lack, Edwardsville.

New County Health Group Plans Drive for Members

A new health care program for Madison County residents will begin Thursday, April 29, when the newly-organized Madison County Health Improvement Association kicks off its month-long drive to enroll members.

The kick-off meeting is scheduled at 7 p.m. in the VFW building in Highland. The enrollment period will end June 1. Those who enroll now automatically will be charter members of the new HIA.

Melvin R. Byrd, Godfrey, Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Apr. 22, 1971 Page 7

president of the new HIA, described the organization as a "voluntary, grass-roots effort to bring large-group health care benefits to rural residents who otherwise could not afford as high a level of protection."

In addition, Byrd said, "HIA involves itself in community health care projects such as immunization drives, scholarships for high school students seeking careers in the health care field, 4-H health awards, Red Cross blood banks, or any project the membership wants to begin."

In 94 Counties

Health Improvement Association exists in 94 counties throughout the state and have been operating for as long as 20 years in some locations.

HIA members also are members of a group Blue Cross and Blue Shield program. Byrd pointed out specific enrollment requirements for new members in the health care group.

"Anyone living in Madison County who is self-employed or works for a business having less than ten full-time employees is eligible for Blue Cross and Blue Shield membership. People under age 65 can enroll on our basic plan, and people 65 and older can enroll on our special HIA Series 65 Medicare Supplemental plan. Even people who already have Blue Cross through another program may be eligible for transfer to the HIA group during this enrollment," he said.

Byrd said the HIA program offers individual coverage for single people and family coverage for parents and their children under 19 years of age.

"The outstanding characteristic of our HIA program," Byrd explained, "is its service benefits which put no dollar limit on hospital care in a semi-private room or on a physician's usual and customary charge for surgical or medical services."

The Blue Cross portion provides protection for up to 365 days of hospital care while Blue Shield provides in-hospital medical care benefits in addition to benefits for surgery, anesthesia, obstetrical care, emergency accident care, and a variety of laboratory and pathology tests."

Byrd announced that Madison County residents wanting to become Blue Cross and Blue Shield members through the HIA group should contact Mrs. Ona South, HIA secretary, by telephoning 636-1499.

Conservationist Will Present Public Talk

Leonard Hall, creator of the adventures of Len and Ginnie Hall in his syndicated column, Possum Trot, will be at Southern Illinois University's Southwestern campus Tuesday and Wednesday, April 27-28.

At 3:30 p.m. Tuesday he will give a public lecture in Science Hall. Admission is free to this Artist-Lecture Series attraction.

A naturalist, author, photographer and one of America's leading conservationists, Hall has published four books, Possum Trot Farm, Country Year, Stars Upstream and Ozark Wildflowers. His articles have appeared in several leading magazines, including Life and Harper's.

With his wife, Virginia, he has traveled a quarter of a million miles during the past 15 years, gathering material for films, photographing and lecturing. As speaker for the National Audubon Society, Hall has talked to audiences in 150 cities throughout the U.S., Canada and the Caribbean.

His films have been shown on television and in colleges and universities across America. In addition, he has talked on wildlife and resource conservation and many agricultural subjects for such groups as the North American Wildlife Conference, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Soil Conservation Society, and Society of American Foresters.

Born on a farm in the Ozarks, Hall received the 1965 Missouri Master Conservationist Award. He holds honorary doctorates from Westminster College (1960) and Washington University (1970) and is a recipient of the Thomas Stoker Award for "the best writing on natural resources in an American newspaper."

In 1965 he received the Missouri Governor's Award as "state conservationist" and in 1967 the Golden Anniversary Award of the Federal Land Banks "for outstanding contributions to American agriculture." He was appointed to the Missouri Academy of Sciences, the state's highest non-political recognition, "for service to state and nation."

Hall is a trustee of the National Parks Association, director of Defenders of Wildlife, The Humane Society of the U.S., Missouri Nature Conservancy, St. Louis Audubon Society and Missouri Animal Protective Association.

State Stocks Bass Into Three Lakes

White bass are being stocked into three Illinois lakes by the Illinois Department of Conservation, according to Bill Fritz, Carlyle, a staff biologist for the division of fisheries.

"The fish are being placed in the Shelbyville and Carlyle Reservoirs and Sangchris Lake near Kincaid," Fritz said. "We are putting in adult breeder size bass, about 12 inches long and a pound in weight, in hopes they will become established in these waters."

Carlyle lake has received 225 of the bass to date, Shelbyville 215 and Sangchris about 160.

41 Schools To Compete In District Track Meet

A total of 606 downstate and Chicago suburban high schools and all schools in the Chicago Public High Schools Athletic Assn. will compete in contests leading to the 1971 State Track and Field Meet May 28 and 29 at Memorial Stadium, Champaign.

Granite City and Madison are among the 41 schools to compete in the Alton district meet Saturday, May 15 at Alton High School. Events will begin at noon on that day. The Alton meet is one of 17 district meets for the downstate and suburban schools being held Friday or Saturday of that week.

Winners of first and second place in each event at the district meets will advance to the finals in Champaign and those taking third, fourth or fifth places in their respective events will be eligible for the state meet if they surpass standards of time or distance set up by the Illinois High School Assn.

Other schools in the Alton district meet are Alton, Alton Marquette, Belleville, Althoff, Belleville East, Belleville West, Bethalto, Breese Mater Del, Bunker Hill, Cahokia, Carrollton.

Collinsville, Columbia, Duplo, East St. Louis, East St. Louis Lincoln, East St. Louis Assumption, Edwardsville, Freeburg, Gillespie, Greenville.

Hardin Calhoun, Highland, Highland St. Paul, Hillsboro, Jerseyville, Lebanon, Litchfield, Mascoutah, Mt. Olive, Mulberry Grove, O'Fallon, Platts, Pleasant Hill, Roxana, Triad, Staunton, Trenton, Waterloo and Wood River.

The present state champion is Evanston and Alton was the runner-up last year. Both schools are rated high again this year and Evanston remains the favorite.

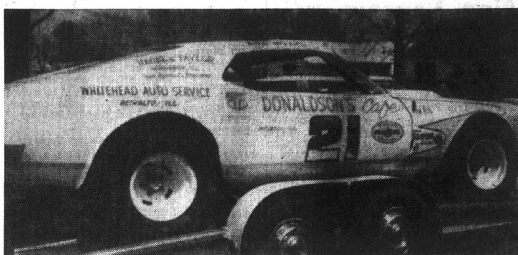

State qualification marks are—100-yard dash, 10.1 seconds; 200-yard dash, 22.4 seconds; 400-yard dash, 51 seconds; 800-yard run, 1 minute, 59 seconds; mile relay 3 minutes, 29 seconds; two-mile run, 9 minutes, 7 seconds; 120-yard high hurdles, 15.1 seconds; 180-yard low hurdles, 20.4 seconds. Shot put, 33 feet; discus, 150 feet; pole vault, 12 feet, 8 inches; high jump, 6 feet, 1 inch; long jump, 21 feet, 9 inches.

Moore to Enroll At Illinois State

Rich Moore, Granite City High School football tackle, is among 38 prep standouts who have indicated they will attend Illinois State University in the fall.

They have accepted ISU scholarships and signed Midwestern Conference letters of intent to enroll at Illinois State. Moore is 6-7 and weighs 250 pounds.

TEMPLE TACO'S AT PLAZA! CALL 876-6553

A NEWCOMER AND A WINNER at the Tri-City Speedway was this 1970 Mustang driven by Bill Myers. Despite heavy smoke from the engine, Myers drove the stocker to third place in his heat and the championship in the feature race. Myers plans to appear at the local track again this Sunday for the weekly super sprint-late model stock program.

Blundy, Myers in Pack for Sunday's Tri-City Race

The gates at the Tri-City Speedway will open at noon Sunday for the second of the weekly super sprint-late model stock car races at the track.

A large crowd was on hand last Sunday as Jerry Blundy of Galesburg won the trophy in the super-sprint division and a new driver to the track, Bill Myers, won the feature race in the late model stock division.

Blundy and an impressive list of other drivers are expected to be at the track Sunday to fight for top honors and prize money. Dick Sutcliffe of Kansas City, Mo., who was unable to attend last weekend because of an engine which blew during a race Friday night at Topeka, Kan., has indicated he is making repairs on the engine and intends to be here.

Drivers returning from last Sunday's race will include Spalding of Granite City, Chuck Amati of Greenville, Tenn., Bobby Jones of Danville, Jimmy Moughan of Springfield, Junior Dietzel of Jefferson City, Mo., and last year's track champion Bill Utz of Sedalia.

Mo. More than 30 sprinters and about 20 late model stockers are expected to compete.

In the late model stock competition, which in the past has been dominated by a select few, Bobby Stanton, Louis Jansen and George Gruenfelder to name a few, a new name and a new car appeared Sunday. Bill Myers in the Donaldson's Cafe 1970 Mustang.

The number 21 stocker appeared to be having trouble early in the race as dense blue smoke started pouring from under the hood, but Myers finished his heat in third place and went on to win the feature race. Myers has also entered this week as have Stanton, Jansen, Gruenfelder and most of the other 14 drivers who raced last weekend.

Despite a controversy over the choice of heat and position by drawing from a hat rather than qualification laps, the draw will be retained this Sunday and qualifications may be resumed at a later date if spectators indicate they prefer the old method.

The gates at the track will open at noon Sunday and the first heats will begin at 2:30 p.m. Warm-ups are scheduled for 12:30 p.m.

Amvets to Host District Golf Tourney May 16

Plans are being completed for the Amvets 5th District Golf Tournament to be held on the Granite City Army Depot links Sunday, May 16.

All Amvets members in the district are eligible to compete in the tournament and the awards ceremony following at Boshoff's Tavern, 14th Street and Madison Avenue. Prizes will be awarded for first-place handicap and scratch, longest drive and closest to the hole.

Play will be under the Peoria handicap system and winter rules will apply. No English balls may be used.

Those interested in competing are urged to submit an entry blank to John Kosak, 1822 Sixth St., Madison, or Stan Skubish, 1018 Grand Ave., Madison, as soon as possible.

12 Schools To Compete In County Track Meet

The top varsity trackmen from 12 high schools in Madison County will converge here Tuesday afternoon for the Madison County Track Meet. The meet is split into two divisions according to the enrollment of each school.

In the green division this year (schools with smaller enrollments) Madison will be pitted against Roxana, Triad, Wood River, Highland, Bethalto, Alton Marquette and Highland St. Paul.

The red division schools competing here Tuesday will be Granite City, Alton, Edwardsville and Collinsville.

Roxana claimed the green division title last year with 60½ points, while Madison followed with 59, only one and one-half points behind. Both are in top contention in this year's meet. Triad was third in 1970 with 42½ points, Wood River had 35, Highland finished with 38 and Bethalto collected 16 points.

Marguerite and St. Paul are new to the competition.

Alton is favored to again lay claim on the red division championship which they won last year with 107½ points. Granite City collected 61½ points, Edwardsville had 46 and Collinsville finished with 38.

Trials will begin at 4 p.m. High School track and field meets at the Granite City High School track and field are scheduled for 6 p.m. Admission is $1 for adults and $1 for students.

Madison holds the official records in the green division, six events and Granite City holds two records in the red division.

Madison's records include the 100-yard dash (10 seconds), the 800-yard relay (1:33), the 440-yard run (51.6), the 180-yard low hurdles (20.45), the 220-yard dash (22.5), the mile relay (3:34.3). Roxana holds five records in that division and Triad and Wood River each hold two.

Granite City claim records for the 120-yard high hurdles (46.5) and the 180-yard low hurdles on the (19.55). Alton holds nine records in that division, Edwardsville has three and Collinsville has two. Many of the records are expected to be broken this year.

The annual meet is sponsored by Wilbur R. L. Trimpe, superintendent of the educational service region.

Bunker Hill Trips Red Devils 5-4

The Venice Red Devils lost their third straight baseball game Monday at Bunker Hill.

Bunker Hill made eight hits and no errors while Venice collected 11 hits but bobbed three times.

"The team hit well but not at the right time and that hurt of course," Coach Robert McKinney commented. "Committing three errors doesn't help much, but it was a good ball game."

The Devils had the bases loaded in the fourth and fifth innings but couldn't score.

In the sixth inning Tony Sinton started off with a double and got to third on a wild pitch but died there as the next three Devils struck out. Jim Ohlendorf and Tony Sinton were both two-for-four at bat. Devils Ed Smith, Raymond Mosby, Bob Franklin and Ohlendorf all stole bases. The Red Devils will try to enter the win column today at Freeburg.

State Retains Park Permit Regulations

The Illinois Department of Conservation will retain a regulation instituted last year requiring that groups of more than 25 persons obtain permits before visiting state parks.

The requirement, announced last summer as an emergency measure to reduce tension-producing congestion, has proved beneficial in a variety of ways, according to Ronald D. Johnson, superintendent of parks and memorials.

Johnson said the ruling has resulted in better distribution of users in state parks and conservation areas, has eased overcrowding, aided crowd control, improved security and facilitated planning for special events.

The portion of the regulation requiring youth groups to have one adult chaperone accompany each 15 young people also will continue in effect, Johnson emphasized.

To reduce delays in processing permit applications, Johnson urged groups desiring to visit state parks to contact local park rangers rather than apply through the department's Springfield office.

Applications must detail the number of people in the group, the park to be visited, the date and approximate arrival time, Johnson said. He stressed that the permit is not a reservation, but merely an acknowledgment of a group's request to visit a particular park on the date and time specified.

Legion Post to Field Ball Team

Despite a controversy over the funding of a Granite City American Legion Post 113 baseball team, Bob Douglas, District 22 commander, stated this week that a team will be organized this season.

Douglas said that funds were appropriated last week and that the team will be one of 11 in the league. Bill Tanner will manage the squad. A Legion spokesman said last week that there were insufficient funds to sponsor a team this year.

Harris Homers But Warriors Bow 4-2

Don Harris slammed a two-run homer in the six inning but it wasn't enough as Granite City High School's baseball Warriors bowed to Belleville West Wednesday at Wilson Park.

The blow was one of only two hits off Maroon Hurler Bill Sturgeon and came with Steve Arbetter on base.

Belleville was held to three hits but took advantage of 12 bases on balls and two hit batsmen. The safeties were weak singles.

John Stanton started on the mound for the Warriors and was relieved in the fourth frame by John Ireland. Harris continued to lead the Warriors at the plate with a .425 average.

The loss dropped Granite City to an eight-and-seven overall record and two-and-four in the Southwest Conference.

The Warriors travel to Edwardsville today for a league day-night doubleheader. They will host Riverview Gardens Friday and St. Louis U. High in another twin bill starting at 11 a.m. Saturday in non-conference games.

Harper Track Hero In Chief's Victory

Nick Harper was the leader Monday afternoon as the Prather 9th grade track squad rolled over Roxana 81 to 37.

Harper trimmed three-tenths of a second from the school record of 14.8 seconds for the 120-yard run over five hurdles and took first place in the high hurdles and the long jump.

Other first place winners for the Chiefs were John Sanders in the 880-yard run, Brad Fitzhugh in the 440-yard dash, Andy Knott in the mile run, Paul Seebold in the shot put and discus throw and Rick Demaree in the high jump and pole vault.

The mile relay team also was credited with a victory.

While the 9th graders enjoyed victory, the 8th grade squad fell to Roxana 62 to 32 and the 7th graders lost 56-38.

Winning their seventh match in as many outings this season, the Granite City High School tennis Warriors blanked Belleville West 5-0 Wednesday at Wilson Park after winning 4-0 at Alton Tuesday.

The last six matches for Coach Dick Harmon's Warriors have been shutouts.

Mike Gaines won against Belleville 6-4, 6-4. Joe Papes 6-4, 6-3 rounds, and Richard Gaines came through at 5-7, 6-1, 6-3 in single events.

In doubles, Duane Parrish and Willis Christopher won 6-3, 7-5, and Robbie Parmley and Gary Loy overcame a threat at 6-4, 6-8.

The Tennis Warriors went to Alton Tuesday and returned with a 4-0 victory.

The first singles match at Alton was called off due to rain, but in the other singles events, Papes won 7-5, 6-1, and Richard Gaines won 6-4, 6-1.

Doubles events were won by Parrish and Christopher 6-3, 6-3, and Parmley and Loy took 6-3 and 6-1 matches.

The Warriors meet Edwardsville at Wilson Park today. A rain-out with Belleville West has been reset for May 12 at Belleville.

Coolidge Tennis Win

With Coolidge netsters winning 5-0 at Roxana Monday, wins were recorded by Bill Ruck, John Bruch, Steve McCuskey and the doubles duo of Alan Davenport-Gary Osborn and Bill Berger-Steve Kraus.

MRS. HENRY HOSTESS TO PHEBEAN CLASS

Mrs. Beatrice Henry 1728 Spring Ave., was hostess for the April meeting of the Phebean Bible Class of Calvary Baptist Church in her home Tuesday. The program opened with a hymn by Mrs. Stella Rushing and there was prayer by Mrs. Elizabeth Knight.

Mrs. Henry gave the devotional, using Scripture verses. Poems were read by Mrs. Cora Cruse, "Lessons in the Valley," Mrs. Mae Williams, "Don't Ever Be Discouraged," and Mrs. Knight, "How Thankful We Are."

Mrs. Williams presided and reports were given by the secretary, Mrs. Lorna Hurston, and treasurer, Mrs. Gusie Hessman. Mrs. Henry remarked on cards sent to the ill, shut-ins and birthday honorees.

The members answered roll call with Scripture verses and the class gave a donation to the Rev. Billy Walker and the evangelistic team of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Suddard of Memphis, Tenn.

The closing hymn was "Where He Leads Me," and the dismissal prayer was by Mrs. Viola Jones.

Refreshments were served to those named and Mrs. Ruby Fears and Mrs. Della Hubbs. The hostess utilized a spring-time theme in the table decorations and the cake and nice cream were in rainbow hues.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hutson, 2835 Palmer Blvd., May 18.

BROWNIES TO FLY UP
Brownie Troop 492 made final preparations for a "fly up" ceremony at a weekend meeting at the home of the leader, Mrs. Skippy Kidman, 2916 Faith Ave.

Mrs. Kidman marked an attendance chart; the scouts with the best attendance at the end of the scout year will receive a special treat. The ten laws and the promise are being studied for advancement to the Junior Scout level this week.

The girls made barnyard animals out of construction paper.

Special guests were Cindy Sutt of Junior Troop 709 and Dawn Glass of the Frohardt School and a friendship circle and "Taps" concluded the day.

Also attending were Laurie Holloway, Carol Ann Kidman, Janet Nunes, Christy Pench, Robin Saltsgrave, Sharon Werner, Tammy Smith, Rhonda Crouch and prospect members Cathy Boone and Louise Holloway.

GRANT'S FARM OUTING

Forty-seven Brownies, Juniors and Cadette scouts on District Four, Neighborhood Two, went to Grant's Farm during the weekend with their leaders. During the tour, the scouts viewed elephant and bird shows, fed animals and enjoyed lunch before returning home.

Special guests were Mrs. Mary McCabe and son, Jimmy, Mrs. DeKossett, Steve Rigney and Cindy Milenkovic.

Leaders and troops represented were Brownie Troop 138, headed by Mrs. Alice Milankovic of St. Joseph's, and Troop 139, headed by Mrs. Cecelia Kleinschmidt, Emerson, and Cadette Troop 62, Mrs. Pat Rigney and Mrs. Doris Wood, St. Joseph. Mrs. Wood is chairman of the Neighborhood Two Girl Scout Leader Association.

SCOUT CAMPING TRIP
Junior Girl Scout Troop 245, sponsored by the Parents for Special Education, returned home Sunday from a camping trip to Camp Lakota. Leaders of the Troop are Miss Vicki Yetter and Miss Mary Modene, assisted by Senior Scout Phyllis Barnes, Nancy Hodges of Troop 1177 and Sheila Mangum of Troop 1179.

Other adults who assisted were Mrs. Peggy Mangum, leader of Cadette Troop 1179, and Misses Ebby Kenebel, Cathy Modene, Shirley Schoenmann, Mary Brockman, and Linda Kenebel.

Scouts participated in nature hikes around the campsite, worked on "my troop" and gypsy badge requirements, learned first-aid, knot tying, and hiking songs, and heard Miss Barnes give a study on "living the scout promise."

A guest honored was Pfc. Barbara Camp, who assisted with the troop before her enlistment in the U. S. Army's Women's Army Corps. She is stationed in Virginia.

On Sunday, a luncheon was held for the scouts and guests. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Yetter and son, Scotty, Miss Judy McCarthy, district advisor, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Marquis and children and Raymond Gross.

Miss Yetter announced that at the April 29 meeting at Wilson School, an art project will be started. Several art students at S.U.-SW will film the project to show during a classroom study.

Church Women United President At National Ecumenical Assembly

Mrs. John Schrader, president of the Quad-City Council of Church Women United, is representing the unit at the CWU National Ecumenical Assembly in Wichita, Kan. The conference begins today and concludes Sunday.

Mrs. Schrader will serve a one-year term with the Board of Managers on the president's committee for Church Women United in Illinois, starting in June, it was announced.

The president's committee consists of the northern, central and southern areas in Illinois. Mrs. Schrader will represent the central area under the new State President, Mrs. Norris L. Meeks of Chicago.

Women from more than 30 denominations and confessions—Protestant, Roman Catholic and Orthodox—representing 2,300 local constituencies in every state and guests from other countries will attend the conference to probe "what it means to live in the fully human way our faith calls us to live in a world shaped by technology," Mrs. Schrader explained.

It is hoped that involvement through interaction and participation will help women to carry the fullest meaning of this experience of openness to the world of now into the future, she said.

Future-oriented experts from many theological, scientific, technological and art disciplines will provide close and flexible interaction to help create the character of the ecumenical assembly experience.

A "think tank" of four persons from widely varied disciplines will grapple with some of the breakthroughs that will shape the future and identify the alternatives, the local CWU president said.

A theological team representing a wide range of Christian tradition and belief will explore the implications of Christ's breakthrough into the midst of humanity and how a richer understanding of a person's own faith can determine attitudes and actions in a breakthrough age.

On the final day, experiences of the meetings will be brought into focus in strategy sessions. Practical plans will be developed to carry forward into the future life styles of Church Women United new goals and action objectives, Mrs. Schrader commented.

Dental Assistants Elect Officers

The Mississippi Valley Dental Assistants Society elected Judy Rainwater to serve as president for the 1971-72 year at the group's April meeting, held Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Betty Williams, 1537 Lindell Blvd.

Other officers chosen for the coming year were Louise Johnson, president-elect; Mrs. Williams, vice-president and program chairman; and Sherry Swegg, secretary-treasurer.

Installation of the new officials will take place May 8 at Skaggs restaurant in Alton. Also discussed during this week's meeting were plans to attend the Illinois State Dental Convention May 1.

GCAR GROUP TO HEAR LEGISLATION REPORT

The Granite City Association for Retarded will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. at St. John United Church of Christ, Mrs. Hazel Kynion, president, announced.

Mrs. Evelyn Gavin will present information on current legislation relative to the care and education of all handicapped children with an open discussion to follow. An invitation is extended to the public.

TECHNICIAN TO GRADUATE

Mrs. Annie R. Claggett, 84 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, will graduate from Gradwohl School of Laboratory Technician, St. Louis, tomorrow, as a laboratory technician. She is a graduate of Madison High School.

Youth Focus

TIRE TRACKS AND FOUNDATION SCARS—a bird's eye view of site being prepared for a new humanities-social sciences building at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale. Eight temporary buildings were removed and when two others (bottom) come out, the way will be cleared for a building as long as three football fields. SIU's University Center is at top. The $11.6 million building is scheduled to be completed in June 1973.

Group Demands Closing Of Vietnamese Center

A student peace group at Carbondale is continuing to demand the closing of the Vietnamese Studies Center at Southern Illinois University.

Tom Dempsey, chairman of the Southern Illinois Peace Committee, issued an ultimatum to the SIU Board of Trustees at its April meeting in Carbondale, threatening "acts of non-violent civil disobedience and disruption" on the campus.

Harold Fischer of Granite City, board president, told him the student group had better refrain from starting anything. In a prepared statement, Fischer replied:

"It appears to us that the Southern Illinois Peace Committee may be contemplating actions which would result in violations of the Carbondale campus' interim policy on demonstrations."

"I urge you to consider the seriousness of the ultimate consequences of such violations on the welfare of your fellow students and of the thousands of others whose well being depends on the peaceful and continuous operations of this university."

Funded by AID

The center, funded partially by a $1 million grant from the Agency for International Development (AID), was started in the summer of 1969.

It offers classes in the Vietnamese language, compiles information on Vietnam and has developed a compilation of Vietnamese materials.

Dempsey, who was allotted 10 minutes on the board's agenda, said a substantial number of students and faculty feel that the center and AID are linked with the CIA and that SIU has no business being a part of such a relationship. He said some students have tried for two years to have the center removed, but they were ignored by the trustees.

"Roll Over Dead"
Dempsey added that "this year's Student Government has already voted to remove the center. We will go to the chancellor and to the Board of Trustees. But if their reaction is the indifference of the past,

McKendree Students Talent Show Saturday

Cooks and guys at McKendree College in Lebanon are putting the finishing touches on their "Talent 71 Show." The event is being sponsored by the student's voice on campus, the Student Congress. The show will be staged in the gymnasium at 8 p.m. Saturday. Tickets are $1.

President Gary Novich, junior from Madison, said, "We are having two divisions bang their heads for top honors in this talent search—both individual and group. There are five entries in each division." All proceeds go to the "McKendree College Faces the Future" fund drive.

we will not roll over as if dead. Rather, we will take the means necessary to insure its removal. "We are prepared to engage in acts of non-violent civil disobedience and disruption if they are the only way CVS will be removed."

Fischer said the board "is most aware of the criticisms of the Center for Vietnamese Studies."

"The board continues to review and study the center and the AID grant. This board pledges that it will not tolerate any nefarious arrangements in connection with the AID grant or any other university function. The board will consistently protect the independence and autonomy of SIU."

Dempsey said he feels the Vietnamese should determine their own course of development without U. S. help.

Venice Seniors To Present Play 'Finders Creepers'

The senior class of Venice High School will present the play "Finders Creepers" at 8 p.m. April 30 in the high school gymnasium.

The cast of characters consists of Linda Devany, Sylvia Gardner, Debbie Foley, Pam Irby, Shirley Taylor, Jerry Gray, Betsy Fields, Ed Oates, John Schodroski, Fred Leatherman, Mark Koehler, Herbert Buford, Cedric Gardner, Darryl Virginia and Albert Turner. The director of the play is Miss Irene Hacklett.

Tickets will be on sale at the door, $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Hoedebecke Holding One-Man Art Show

A one-man show featuring the works of Mark Hoedebecke, a junior from Granite City, will be on display at Eastern Illinois University through May.

Hoedebecke has had practical art experience, working as an apprentice to a scene artist for the Municipal Opera at St. Louis.

Winter Plays in Concert
Douglas Winter, 9 Miami Court, participated with the First Regimental Band of the University of Illinois in a concert last night in the Great Hall of the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts. Prof. Everett Kinsinger directed 91 musicians.

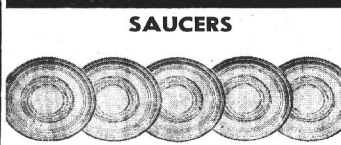

Named to Dean's List
Tom Schuenke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schuenke, 65 Oaklawn Drive, has been named to the dean's list for the winter term at Wittenberg University, Springfield, Ohio. He is a sophomore.

MAY BRIDE-TO-BE. Miss Jennifer Bailey, whose engagement to Stanley D. Hoffman is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hancel Bailey, 2116 Lynch Ave.

Jennifer Bailey to Marry in May

The engagement of Miss Jennifer Bailey and Stanley D. Hoffman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hoffman Sr., 1620 Clark Ave., was announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hancel Bailey, 2116 Lynch Ave.

Miss Bailey, whose father is a detective with the Granite City Police Department, is a 1969 graduate of Granite City High School. She is employed at Mercer Mortuary.

The prospective groom was graduated from Granite City High School and attended SIU-Carbondale. He is enrolled at Washington University, St. Louis, where he is majoring in Art.

A May 29 wedding is being planned and will take place at the Third Baptist Church.

Huss-Harrison Nuptials At St. Mary's, Madison

Announcement is made of the wedding April 17 of Miss Bonna Harrison, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Harrison, 214 State St., Madison and Robert Huss, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Huss of Ferguson, Mo.

The morning ceremony took place at St. Mary Roman Catholic Church in Madison, with the Rev. Conrad Molitor, assistant pastor, officiating at the 11 o'clock Nuptial Mass. Bouquets of white spring flowers and white satin bows on the altar provided the setting for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an Empire gown of French lace embroidered with pearls and sequins. The bride had a high neckline and long sleeves. A headpiece of embroidered roses and pearls held in place the bride's bouffant veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations tied with white satin ribbon.

Miss Patty Dickerson was honor attendant and Mrs. Jackie Harrison, a sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Jackie Stamm, and Mrs. Mary Sullivan, sisters of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaids.

Dressed alike, they were in bouquets of white nylon embroidered with yellow and moss green. Moss green velvet ribbon trimmed the waistlines, the high necks and the long sleeves. They carried baskets of spring blossoms and wore picture hats of yellow with green velvet ribbon.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Harrison chose a baby blue dress with sequin trim, while the bridegroom's mother selected a soft pink dress with lace trim. The former wore a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Huss had deep pink roses in her corsage.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a breakfast for the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

A reception was held at the American Legion Hall in Jennings, Mo., with about 250 guests attending. The newlyweds are honeymooning at Niagara Falls. When they return they will live in Jennings.

The rehearsal dinner preceding the wedding was held in the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Miss Adele Koch Is Bride-Elect

The engagement of Miss Adele M. Koch to James E. LaRock is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Koch, 2625 Grand Ave. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. LaRock of Huntington Beach, Calif.

Miss Koch, who resides in Waukegan, is presently teaching at Green Bay Elementary School in North Chicago.

Her fiancé is an Electronics Technician serving with the U. S. Navy at Great Lakes Naval Station. Next month he will be transferred to a base at Charleston, S.C.

Plans are being completed for summer wedding in Charleston.

FORMER RESIDENTS NAME SECOND CHILD

Mr. and Mrs. James Schiber of Hamel, Ill., former Granite Cityans, are announcing the birth of a daughter, Monday at St. Joseph's Hospital, Belleville. The new arrival weighed seven pounds, 13 ounces and has been named Michelle Renee. She has a 7-year-old brother, Rocky.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Kessler, 3011 Marshall Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schiber of Hamel.

GCHS '61 CLASSES TO HOLD REUNION

A reunion of the 1961 January and June classes of the Granite City High School will be held Saturday, June 5.

All those who have not received notices of the 10-year reunion and wish to attend are asked to make reservations as soon as possible by calling Kathy Kalinski Moore, at 877-0886, or Sharon Myers Fife, at 877-9435.

Thomas Layman, sentinel; Robert Swiger, standard bearer; Ralph Reeder, almoner; Danny Jones, protom for Ben Gordon, marshal; Michael Schanuel, orator; Lindsay Church, Thomas Hewlett, Tony Welch, Leonard Schaefer, Philip Mull, Gregory Obermeier, protom for Steven Phillips, and Thomas Banks, preceptors.

Parents Honored
During the installation the master counselor's mother, Mrs. Velma Penn, was escorted to the altar by the junior line Master Counselor Karius where Bruce gave a short speech of appreciation and presented her with an arm bouquet of roses.

Bruce then asked that his dad, Raymond Penn, be escorted to the altar where he presented them with a silver loving cup inscribed "Mom & Dad Outstanding Parents of a Lifetime."

After receiving the gavel of office Bruce introduced the installing team.

Miss Debbie Hightower presented solos for him and his parents. Miss Beth Ann Ledbetter accompanied and played during the installation.

Introduced and escorted to the East were Miss Becky Thomason, the chapter's 1969 Sweetheart and 1971 Sweetheart candidates Denise Lewis, Patricia McKay and Debbie Barham.

Recognition Presented

Hawkins then introduced Mrs. Shirley Schilling, president of the Mother's Club, who introduced other Mother's Club officers and asked mothers to stand. They were given a standing ovation by the chapter members for their assistance.

The master counselor presented an orchid corsage to Mrs. Schilling. Others recognized were Mrs. Adeline Lee, Mrs. Gerry Noud and Mrs. Dorothy O'Neill for pressing the officers robes, Mrs. Bernice Fitzpatrick for being general chairman of the annual chili supper and Mrs. Marie Naeve for being the evening's dining room chairman and program preparation.

Introduced and speaking briefly were: Dr. Amos Rode, excellent high priest of the chapter's sponsoring body, Granite City Chapter #221 Royal Arch Masons; Gene Ross, member of the board of grand examiners of the Grand Lodge of Illinois.

Walter Bergfeld, district deputy and secretary of Granite City Chapter No. 221 R.A.M.; Charles "Chuck" Hileman, state senior counselor; John Lylerla, master counselor of Ascalon Chapter, Collinsville; Barry Bruggemann, DASI master counselor; Miss Mickey Pritz, senior princess, Beth No. 43 International Order of Job's Daughters.

Also introduced were the worthy matron and patron of Granite City Chapter No. 650 Order of Eastern Star, Mrs. Marilyn Timmons and Mr. Ray Penn.

Chapter Advisor Charles Meyer presented the past master counselor's jewel to Paul Boyer, retiring Master Council. Boyer then presented Bruce with the master counselor's pin and the chapter with a "DeMolay for the Term" trophy to be presented at each future installation to the qualifying DeMolay. The master counselor announced the following DeMolay events:

Coming Events
Saturday and Sunday at Pere Marquette Hotel in Peoria, a DeMolay Congress; Sunday, May 2, DASI meeting at Jacksonville with bowling tournament in the afternoon. Reservations are to be in by Saturday.

The chapter has entered a softball team in the Park League and referred members to Mike Hickey for information and player registration.

The installation was adjourned to dancing to the music of "Art Lavelle and the Starlighters." Refreshments were served by the Mothers Club. A large birthday cake adorned the refreshment table as the master counselor and his dad had birthdays.

The chapter's 1971 DeMolay Sweetheart and her two attendants were crowned by Miss Becky Thomason, 1969 sweetheart.

Miss Peggy Carson, the chapter's 1970 Sweetheart who was elected Miss SIDA last June and State DeMolay Sweetheart in August, became Mrs. Mickey Wiess in Fort Carson, Colo., last fall and surrendered her crown to Miss Vickie Coart of Danville, 1970's state first runner-up. The State DeMolay Sweetheart trophy was on display during the evening.

Crowned as 1971 DeMolay Sweetheart was Miss Denise Lewis, Miss Patricia McKay was first runner-up and Debbie Barham was second runner-up. For the coronation Miss Thomason was escorted by Bruce Hawkins; Miss Barham by David Ledbetter; Miss McKay by Hiram Ables; and Miss Denise Lewis by Steven Ebrecht.

'Making Hats' Minerva Topic

Mrs. Clara Parker entertained the Minerva Women's Club Tuesday evening in her home, 1509 Garfield Ave.

Mrs. Peggy Solberger, president, called the club to order and the pledge to the flag and roll call was led by Mrs. Mary Tarpoff, sergeant-at-arms. The hostess read the club collect.

Guest speaker for the evening, Mrs. Mary Noth, who was introduced by Mrs. Jo Ann Terrell. Mrs. Noth spoke on "Making Your Hats" and the demonstrated models were won by Mrs. Phyllis Hodge, Mrs. Terrell and Mrs. Solberger.

Others present to whom refreshments were served were Mesdames Helen Peterson, Margaret Rehagen, Phyllis Brusatti, Jo Ann Burcky, Faye Mercer, Cathy Busta, Jo Anne Kraus, Ida Weiss, Harriet Mercer, LaVenka Meyer, Shirley Goff and Betty Skirball.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Jan Kohl, 2340 Gary Ave. with Mrs. Beverly Benoit as hostess.

Mrs. Patricia Metz of Troy will represent the club at Friday's Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs meeting in Waterloo.

County GOP Women Install

Installation of officers of the Madison County Federation of Republican Women took place Monday at the Stratford Hotel, Alton, with three Granite City women taking office.

Mrs. Vernice Wortman was installed as recording secretary, Mrs. Maxine Grissman, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Mary Nemeth as Americanism chairman.

The Granite City Club received the James McRoberts membership gavel for having the largest percentage increase in members.

Also attending the luncheon meeting from the Granite City Republican Women's Club were Mrs. Edna Richter, Mrs. Lily Chaboude and Roy Lynn, local GOP committee chairman.

STORY OF ISRAEL FILM SUNDAY AT 1ST ASSEMBLY

"His Land", rich in color and authentic sights and sounds, with a popular musical score composed and arranged by Ralph Carmichael and called a musical journey into the soul of a nation, will be shown Sunday night, at 6:30 at First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Grand Avenue.

The story of Israel from ancient to modern times is a one-hour color motion picture which takes the viewer on a journey through space, time and current events. The community is invited to attend the film, the Rev. M. A. Groll, pastor of the church, said.

Loren Davis Installed PTA President

The newly-elected officers of Niedringhaus PTA were installed at a meeting in the school auditorium Tuesday evening.

The staff includes Loren H. Davis, president; Mrs. Ray L. Edwards, first vice-president; Mrs. Troy Powell, second vice-president; Mrs. Ted Macios, secretary; and Mrs. Harry Fryntko, treasurer.

The installation ceremony was conducted by Ted Macios, who received a past president's pin. All of the officers were presented with flowers by Mrs. John Gionko.

The meeting opened with presentation of the colors, the pledge to the flag and the song "America" led by Girl Scout Troop 275.

The retiring president offered prayer and presided during the meeting. Plans were made for a party May 6 at the Rose Bowl honoring Mrs. Alfred (Gladys) Pape, a teacher who is retiring after 36 years service, and Mrs. Larry (Sheryl) English, who is resigning. The dinner, hosted by MRS. ANTHONY G. CAREY, the former Patricia Ellen Hogan, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hogan, 265 Adams St., who was married at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. The bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Florence Carey and the late Vincent Carey of Grafton, Ill.

Maryville PTA Elects Norman Hall

A report of the nominating committee was submitted Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Maryville PTA and the following slate of officers was elected:

Norman Hall, president; Mrs. Joyce Schrader, assistant president; Harold Brandon, vice-president; Mrs. Diana Neely, secretary; and Jerry Smith, treasurer.

The meeting was called to order by the president and reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. The members were reminded of a strawberry festival to be held Friday, April 30, from 4 until 8 p.m. There was also an explanation of the use of the funds from the festival.

Indian Theme at Pack 98 Meeting

Cub Pack 98 held a pack meeting Monday evening at the Stallings School gymnasium.

The Webelos carried the colors and Cubmaster Dale Potter led the pledge of allegiance. The April theme was "Indians," with dens 1, 2 and 3 entertaining.

Cubmaster Potter presented and arranged by Ralph Carmichael and called a musical journey into the soul of a nation, will be shown Sunday night, at 6:30 at First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Grand Avenue.

Missionaries

Circle 4 of the United Presbyterian Women of First Presbyterian Church met Tuesday evening in the church parlors with Mrs. William Jeffers as hostess.

Mrs. Charles Landis, chairman, presided and eight members attended.

Guests present were the Rev. and Mrs. Donald H. Calderwood, missionaries to Pakistan, who spoke of their work among the Pakistanians. Both are teachers there.

Also on the program was a talk by Mrs. Helen Matson of places visited on a recent trip to Mexico.

Plans were furnished for a mother-daughter party May 4 for which tickets still are available. They may be secured from action key women of the various circles until Tuesday.

The Fellowship of the Least Coin service was conducted by Mrs. Betty Rea, and Mrs. Virginia Miller gave the Year Book of Prayer. Mrs. Virginia John had the lesson on "The Changing Church in The 70's."

Mrs. Voe Thorne will serve as hostess at the May meeting.

Minerva Club Awards Skating Grant

In a departure from their usual student sponsorship programs, the Minerva Woman's Club of Granite City this week announced a scholarship grant has been awarded to a youthful ice skater to attend a nationally-recognized skating school in Ohio.

Mrs. Jack Solberger, club president, said recipient of the grant is Maureen Hayes, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hayes, 2814 Idaho Ave.

An enthusiastic figure skater and a member of the Granite City Skating Club, Maureen will take part in a two-week program of intensive instruction at the Troy Skating School at Hobart Arena, Troy, Ohio, from July 25 to Aug. 7.

The school is sanctioned by the United States Figure Skating Association. Students attending the summer program are billeted during their stay with skating-oriented families in the 17,000 population community, located about 20 miles from Dayton, Ohio.

Instruction at the school is provided by Dick Rimmer, a native of Canada and a gold medal winner. He was twice a member of Canada's North American and World Skating Teams and operates the school with assistance of seven professional skaters.

Under his tutelage, several pupils have won regional, sectional and national championships. Rimmer also has coached competitors for the North American, World and Olympic events.

GGHS Sophomore

A sophomore at Granite City High School, Maureen started skating only four years ago when the park district opened the Wilson Park rink.

She advanced rapidly under the direction of Mrs. Pam Siefert and Mrs. Norma Wille, skating instructors from St. Louis, who have been credited with furnishing the basic skill and incentive to youthful skaters in the local community.

To attend the Troy Skating School, the 15-year-old Granite City girl qualified by earning a series of advancement badges issued by the Ice Skating Institute of America. The mandatory badges achieved include Alpha, Beta and Gamma in Free Style 1 and 2, plus Ice Dancing 1.

Maureen is active in other recreational sports, such as tennis, softball and swimming, and holds both the Red Cross Junior and Senior Life Saving badges. She is one of six children in the Hayes family.

Since the Minerva Woman's Club was organized in 1936 as a Junior Club, the group has earned a reputation for philanthropic efforts, especially in the field of scholarship awards.

In 1960, the club originated the first city art shows that were staged at the Granite City Public Library, awarding cash prizes to the winners to further their education in the art field.

Support Foundation

The Minerva Club was among the charter members of the Granite City Scholarship Foundation. The group has maintained a continuous membership throughout the years and also provided representatives to the foundation's governing board.

For the past eight years, Minerva members have provided at least one campership annually for a handicapped child to attend summer sessions at Little Grass Crippled Children's Camp, near Carbondale, and scholarships to summer music camps have been awarded to both vocal and instrumental departments at local schools.

On various occasions, the women has assisted needy and deserving young people, not only with financial help but by personal interest and contact. The service was made possible with cooperation of interested teachers and school counselors, Mrs. Solberger said.

Not all the club's philanthropic objectives are youth oriented, she noted. Senior citizens have benefited by the Minerva Club's participation in programs at nursing homes. A financial contribution was made to support the Meals on Wheels project.

An annual donation is given to both the Granite City and Madison public libraries to maintain the reference shelves the club established honoring the late Miss Hettie Pick and the late Miss Sadie Crawford.

The Minerva Woman's Club is federated with the 22nd District, Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs. The club's current membership numbers 25 women.

Slides Viewed on Visit to Greece

A talk by Mrs. Helen Gantcheff on Greece, and slides of various places of interest visited on her tour through that country, highlighted the May meeting of the Maude M. Tolleson Philanthra Class of Niederrhous United Methodist Church Tuesday evening in Wesley Hall.

The meeting opened with group singing led by Miss Ella Ray Smith, accompanied at the piano by Miss Nelle Hart, and prayer by Mrs. Lucy Weaver. After the business session and program refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ola Tierney, chairman, Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. Emma Schoen, Miss Norma Chesterman, Miss Katherine Van Order and Miss Mabel Stewart to 21 members and the guest, Mrs. Gantcheff.

FUTURE SKATING STAR? Maureen Hayes, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hayes, 2814 Idaho Ave., happily accepts a scholarship grant to attend the Troy Skating School in Ohio from Mrs. Jack Solberger, president of the Minerva Woman's Club. The award is the first of its type to be bestowed by the local club which usually reserves its monetary gifts to aid music students and handicapped children.

In Memoriam 33

In loving memory of GEORGE MITCHELL, April 21, 1889 - 28-49

Our family circle has been broken. A link gone from our chain; But though we're parted for a while, We know we'll meet again. Some day we hope to meet you. Some day, we know not when. We shall meet in a better land and never part again. We shall meet with many a loved one. That was torn from our embrace. We shall listen to their voices As behind them face to face. Sunshine passes, shadows fall, Love's remembrance outlasts all. Sadly missed by LOUISE MITCHELL, KENNY and CONNIE MITCHELL and FAMILY.

Two Boys Burned In Explosion

Two 5-year-old boys suffered severe burns about the face and head in an explosion of a 25th Street car at East 25th Street and 25th Street, Sunday, April 18, 1971. The boys, Darren Ward, son of Michael Ward, 1307 Kirkpatrick, and Anthony Wallace, son of Bobby Wallace, 1306 Kirkpatrick, were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital and then transferred to Children's Hospital, St. Louis.

Police said the boys apparently were playing with matches on top of a concrete encased hole housing gas and water in a 1 1/2 inch supply pipe. The boys dropped matches into the hole. A pack of burned matches was found at the scene.

Venice Aldermen Win New Terms; Lacked Opposition

Four incumbent Venice aldermen were re-elected without opposition Tuesday in balloting in four polling places—one in each of the city's four wards.

Because only four aldermen were to be elected, voting was by wards, with the largest vote cast in Ward Four where 175 voters went to the polls.

Elected in Tuesday's balloting were Lloyd Patterson, 108 Second St., Ward One; George Mercedia St., Ward Three, and Oscar King, 99 Weaver St., Ward Four.

Patterson received 113 votes out of a total of 130 cast in his ward. Eleven write-in votes were cast for James Edmondson and six ballots were spoiled.

A total of 171 votes was cast in Ward Two where Mangiarini received 165 of the total cast. Six ballots were spoiled.

Ratiff received 157 of the 168 votes cast in his ward, with 11 spoiled.

King received 187 of the 175 votes cast in Ward Four. One write-in vote was cast for Chance Jamerson and six ballots were spoiled.

The city council, which met in regular session last night, canvassed the vote. City Clerk William "Mike" Ebersold administered the oath of office for the new aldermen.

Announcing Birth Of Second Child

Announcement is made of the birth of a daughter to Specialist 4 Ronny Dennis, and Mrs. Dennis, Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. The infant, whose weight was seven pounds, 12 ounces has been named Rhonda Lee. This is their first child. The father, who is on duty in New Ulm, Germany, expects to return home in June.

Mrs. Dennis, the former Beverly Mathis, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mathis, 921 Iowa St., Madison, is residing with her parents. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Oklas Dennis of Dover, Tenn.

EARTH WEEK OBSERVED BY NAMEOKI STUDENTS
"Students Again Pollution," an organization of Nameoki School students, met Monday after school to complete plans for observance of "Earth Week" April 19-25.

Principal Donald Kopp sponsors the new ecology group, which was established to work with citizens of Granite City to eliminate pollution.

"Earth Week" will be spent distributing posters — advising of the phosphate content of detergents — to area stores.
The membership was divided into three groups which will work in the following areas: air pollution, water pollution and publicity.

Newly-elected officers are: President, Larry Libby; vice president, Norman Fresh; secretary, Nancy Weil; treasurer, Doug Kraus; and speaker, Brian Belanski. The next meeting will be Friday afternoon at the school.

BANQUET, SALE PLANS BY MISSIONARY LEAGUE

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League of Hope Lutheran Church met at the church, with Mrs. Ernest McDonald leading opening devotions. The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Henry Wahneburg and Mrs. Verna Moehle.

A new member, Mrs. Eda Crabbs was welcomed. Hostesses, Mrs. Gordon Dolan and Mrs. Robert Blackard, served refreshments to 15 members and a guest.

banquet Sunday, May 16 at 6 p.m. in the church hall. Clarissa Start will be the guest speaker. Tickets at $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children 12 and under are available from Mrs. Delmar Fresh. Members and guests are to be dressed in appropriate old-fashioned attire.
A rummage sale will be sponsored at the church today from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Mrs. Alvin Accola and Mrs. Ernest McDonald were delegates to a "spring rally" yesterday at St. John's Lutheran Church. Alternates were Mrs. Henry Wahneburg and Mrs. Verna Moehle.

Speaker for the evening was Mrs. Sandra Innes, who told of her coming trips to Washington, D.C., and Switzerland.

The meeting closed with all reciting the Lutheran Women's pledge. Next meeting will be May 20.

Quad-City Church Women United May Fellowship Luncheon May 7

May Fellowship Day will be celebrated by Church Women United in the Quad-City Area on Friday, May 7, at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, 1900 St. Clair Ave. The 12 o'clock luncheon will be a salad smorgasbord.

This year's theme, "Focus on the Family in a New Era," will explore the qualities which can make the family a "family for others."

"Everywhere churches are concerned with the effect of social change upon the family," said Mrs. Leonard Roberts, chairman of the May Fellowship celebration. She added, "the character of our community depends upon the character which is being built into its families."

Guest speaker will be the Rev. G. William Bettner, an outstanding speaker and active worker in community affairs, the Rev. Bettner has a master degree in education and is nearing completion of work on his M.S.W. in counseling and guidance at St. Louis University.

Sister Marie Monica, principal of St. Margaret Mary School, will direct the seventh grade students in a choral reading entitled "Creation."

Planning the dining room arrangements for the luncheon are Nancy Duckworth, Ginny Connelly and Pat Bailey. Carol Starling, C.W.U. corresponding secretary, is assisting in publicizing the program and planning the program covers and inserts.

Ticket chairman is Harriet Lovins. Reservations are to be made by calling Mrs. Lovins, at 877-6636, by April 30. Baby sitting services will be available during the luncheon.

Coordinators for special days of celebrations are Mrs. Dorothea Rivenburgh and Mrs. Deleores Boston.

Goes Before You Do

Remember, you can't take it with you — who ever saw a Brinks truck in a cemetery.

JUNE BRIDE-ELECT. Miss Barbara Ann Brown whose engagement to Milton O. Wallace has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Brown, 2632 Madison Ave. The wedding will take place June 25 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Wallace-Brown Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Brown, 3832 Madison Ave., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann Brown, to Milton O. Wallace, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval M. Wallace, 785 Babler Drive, Florissant, Mo.

Miss Brown, a mathematics teacher at St. Teresa Academy in East St. Louis, was graduated from the academy in 1966. She received a Bachelor of Science degree in Mathematics in 1970 from SIU-SW and is currently working on a master's degree in Counselor Education at SIU.

Named to the 1969-70 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities," Miss Brown also received the 1970 Southern Illinois University "Distinguished Service Award."

Her fiancé was graduated from Hazelwood High School in 1964 and from Sanford Brown Business College, where he earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Accounting.

Mr. Brown served two years in the United States Army, including a 14-month tour of duty in Korea. His present employment is with the Kroger Company, St. Louis Division, as an assistant grocery merchandising representative.

A late June wedding is planned at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Completes Marine Course

Marine Cpl. Dwight Woods, son of Mrs. Vernice Colglighy, 812 Washington St., Madison, has completed the non-commissioned officer's leadership course at the Marine Corps Air Station, Beaufort, S.C. He is a 1968 graduate of Madison High School.

Cheryl Lynn Johnson is Engaged

The engagement of Miss Cheryl Lynn Johnson and Specialist Four Steven E. Compton organ at a local music studio. The newly-engaged pair plans to marry upon Spec. 4 Compton's return from Taiwan.

Spec. 4 Compton, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Compton of Belleville, is a member of the U. S. Army Security Agency. He is presently home on leave and shortly will depart for duty on Taiwan. He is a graduate of the Belleville school system, Belleville Township Junior College and Metro Barber College.

County WCTU Clinic Friday

Mrs. Bethel J. Davis, county president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, will preside at a business meeting during the Madison County Women's Spring Institute and Clinic at 10 a.m. Friday. The meeting will be held at the Assembly of God Church, 781 N. 9th St., Wood River, with the Wood River and Roxana WCTU groups serving as hosts.

Mrs. Davis also will present a report of Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie's Youth Conference held last week in Belleville.

Mrs. Ruth Smith, state director of social service, will be the main speaker, giving highlights of a state clinic meeting held in Springfield in March. Also attending will be Mrs. Robert Nessel of Alton, former state president. Mrs. Susan Hopkins of Glen Carbon will be the soloist.

Madison High Band to Present Final Concert Sunday

"A Sunday Afternoon With Music" is the theme for the final concert of the Madison High School Band to be presented Sunday at 3:15 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

The audience will be seated at tables for the performance, and refreshments will be served by the Madison Band Parents Club.

Directed by William F. Ledbetter, director of instrumental music in the Madison schools, the band will perform many favorite numbers. Selections will include "The Light Cavalry Overture," by Suppe; "Colonama," by Peter DeRose; selections from the Broadway show, "West Side Story"; "Elsa's Procession to the Cathedral" from the opera, "Lohengrin," by Richard Wagner.

"Ceremonial Music," by Vachlav Nelhybel; and "Reguine Festival," by Glen Osger.

Marches will include two by John Philip Sousa, "Nobles of the Mystic Shrine" and "The Stars and Stripes Forever".

A highlight of the program will be a snare drum trio number, entitled "Jazzell's Rascals," featuring students, Bonnie Willmirth, Austin Lewis and Larry Lassen.

Admission will be by season ticket or single admissions will be available at the door.

Reorganize Food Stamp Offices; 10 Closed

A reorganization of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Food Stamp field offices in Illinois became effective this week. Reduction in the number of offices, establishment of a new one, and consolidation of their areas of jurisdiction will result in increased efficiency and economy of operation, according to Dennis M. Doyle, Midwest regional director of USDA's Food and Nutrition Service.

The move results in the closing of field offices in 10 cities, including Carbondale, Carrollton, Decatur, Harrisburg, Joliet, La Salle, Olney, Quincy, Rock Island, and Salem. A new food stamp field office has been set up in Marion. Remaining original offices are in Champaign, Chicago, East St. Louis, Peoria, Rockford and Springfield.

Haycraft Pleads Not Guilty In Tax Case

Harold C. Haycraft, 35, of Meadowbrook, Ill., former tax collector for Fort Russell township in Madison County, pleaded not guilty to charges of attempted income tax evasion Monday before Federal Judge Omer Poos in Springfield. Haycraft's wife, Mrs. Bessie B. Haycraft, former deputy tax collector of Fort Russell township, was indicted Feb. 17 on similar charges and pleaded not guilty Feb. 25.

Haycraft is charged in a four-count indictment returned April 7 with attempting to evade a large part of his and his wife's joint income taxes from 1964 through 1967.

Korean War Still Dangerous 18 Years After Cease-Fire

(Second of three articles)

"The United States can and should remove 20,000 troops from here. Perhaps we should have done so one or two years ago."

So spoke a responsible U. S. official in Seoul amid the public clamor against cuts in American strength.

The government of South Korean President Park Chung Hee is resigned to these cuts but in the face of what they feel is the strong possibility of another invasion from North Korea.

"Sure, there is need for U. S. presence here," the U. S. spokesman said. "We've got to have a GI around with the chance of getting a bayonet in the belly at the DMZ—just to let the ROK (Republic of Korea) know that we will keep our pledge to defend this country in case there is a new invasion."

"But, they must learn more and more to stand on their own feet. We'll give them the psychological help they need—the evidence that they have outside support."

Troop withdrawals are going on everywhere. Why should Korea be an exception?

United Nations Role
The Americans at the United Nations headquarters commanded by Gen. John H. Michaelis—and it is mostly a U. S. operation—are high in their praise of the South Korean army but feel that the fear voiced every day of a new drive south by the forces of Red Premier Kim Il Sung is not warranted.

"The ROKs have a fine army (about 500,000 plus 47,000 in Vietnam), perhaps more than they need," the U. S. spokesman said.

"More properly, to bolster their economy, they might cut their regular forces and add to their home guards (reserves)." With such an army and with the remaining U. S. assistance, the Americans feel that the demilitarized zone can be kept quiet and terrorist infiltration kept to a minimum.

Nightly Curfew
"Don't forget," the U. S. spokesman said, "there is a curfew here every night from midnight to 4 a.m. and any non-European on the street has a very good chance of being shot. That's pretty good security."

A RED ALERT. North Korea uses women in its anti-aircraft units. Nicknamed "airplane hunters," these women are shown engaging in a drill against a mythical Republic of Korea raid. The picture was smuggled to South Korea by a Seoul secret agent.

It is the judgment at UN headquarters (a group of Thailand troops and a few Western nation staff officers are the only "outsiders" augmenting the 32,000-man U. S. contingent) that North Korea has no present intention of waging a new war against the south.

"On the contrary," one official said, "they are spending most of their efforts on defense—even to the point of organizing full-time women's anti-aircraft units. Kim has his people convinced the attack will come from the south."

U. S. intelligence, thus, is directly contrary to that of the Seoul government.

Will Enemy Attack?
"We have good intelligence and we are sure there is no such attack due against the south," the U. S. spokesman said. "This one exception could come if Kim ran into some internal problem that demanded it in order for him to keep control."

"Of course, when Communist China comes up with an effective ICBM (intercontinental ballistic missile) it could be a whole new ball game and all predictions are out."

U. S. Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird on March 9 reported that there was strong evidence that Red China may have fired an ICBM and also had deployed intermediate range missiles capable of hitting Russia and most nations of Asia.

Americans on the scene consider the South Korean army far superior to that of the Communists and even see a parity between the ROK air force and the numerically superior jet force of the Reds.

This also is a disturbing analysis to the South Koreans, who see a multibillion dollar military equipment modernization outlay by the United States to bring ROK forces to top level efficiency.

Money, Modern Weapons
The matter of U. S. aid has not been settled but it is likely to be more in the form of a billion-dollar program, including the transfer of modern rifles, machine guns and other weapons to ROK forces as the U. S. combat units are removed.

American military leaders feel that it is not necessary to match the North Koreans plane for plane, as the Seoul government desires.

Next: A matter of life or death. "By properly protecting the Korean jets we can make it counter-productive for the Reds to sweep in and attempt destruction of the ROK air force," the U. S. spokesman said.

The reasoning is that properly protected ROK planes would need three direct hits to insure destruction and the Reds cannot take the chance of risking so many of their own jets to accomplish the job.

Economical Protection
"It is much more economical to handle it this way and just as effective," is the American's view. "Let's say we have an F-4 plane worth $25 million. We can protect it with a $100,000 investment ($50,000 when the Communists get it themselves). With such good protection, an attack is counterproductive for the Communists."

Also, Americans point out, there always will be the availability abroad carriers and at other nearby bases of high-quality U. S. air support.

Even though Communist jets are only three minutes from Seoul and the North Koreans have the availability of fast reinforcements from Red China, the U. S. position is that the only real apparent danger is in increasing Communist infiltration and subversive activities—not in invasion.

Park's government calls this philosophy tailored for justification of U. S. withdrawal at a critical time. The Americans disagree, saying it is a realistic evaluation of the true situation.

Next: A matter of life or death.

Board From Sewer Sent to Complainant

Mrs. Mary Brominski, 1447 Grand Ave., was surprised when she opened a package addressed to her and marked "from a secret admirer." She found an eight-inch-long board with a note attached.

The note explained the board had been clogging the storm sewer in front of Mrs. Brominski's home for several months and was removed by Granite City Street Department workers.

Mrs. Brominski had been complaining of flooding in front of the home after the board apparently became lodged in the sewer.

Veterinarians Present Programs in Schools

Veterinary Medical Education Week is being observed in Quad-City area schools this week as part of a state-wide program, with daily educational programs presented in the schools by Dr. L. H. Holt and Dr. L. O. Tadlock, area veterinarians.

During the week talks were given by Dr. Tadlock at Prather Junior High School on Monday and at Central Junior High School on Wednesday. Dr. Holt made a presentation at Coolidge Junior High School on Tuesday and was to appear today at Grigsby Junior High School.

Both Veterinarians are to appear in a presentation at Granite City High School tomorrow.

The programs feature films and lectures concerning the many facets of veterinary medicine and its relation to everyday life.

If you were going to design a lawn mower, where would you put the grass catcher?

On the right side, so it bumps into whatever's sticking up on your right? On the left side, so it does the same there? The fact is, most grass bags are afterthoughts. They stick out to one side. They simply weren't designed to be part of the mower.

The Snapper V-21 or 18 has its grass bag between the handles. You can close train on both sides, and vacuum your lawn while you're mowing. And the bag holds three times as much grass. We designed it that way.

In fact, all the good things about Snapper V-21 or 18 are logical. The result of sound design and planning by people who make lawn equipment and only lawn equipment. Not afterthoughts.

Expansion at Mounds Not Among Priorities

Expansion of Cahokia Mounds State Park—proposed as a means of preserving one of the most important historical areas in the country—is not among the top 25 priorities for land acquisition scheduled by the Illinois State Department of Conservation, area officials have been informed by Henry Barkhausen, director of the department.

As a result, funds from other sources will be sought. One proposal advanced by State Rep. Ed Lehman (R-East St. Louis) calls for legislation authorizing the Illinois Building Authority to provide $750,000 for land acquisition in the Mounds park area.

Barkhausen, following a meeting in Springfield with legislators, state officials and interested Madison and St. Clair County residents, agreed the mounds should be preserved but pointed out that the conservation department has limited funds. He declined to list the 25 priorities, explaining that selections still are under way.

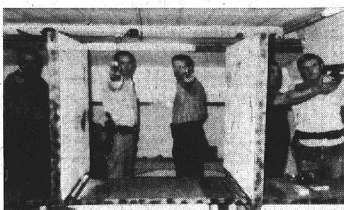

The biggest archaeological dig in the history of the mounds which contain artifacts of an Indian culture dating back to 700 A.D. are planned this summer.

Medical Technologists To Meet at Belleville

The Illinois Society of Medical Technologists will hold its annual spring convention Saturday and Sunday at Augustus's Motor Lodge, Belleville.

Ray Randolph, St. Louis sportscaster will be the banquet speaker Saturday night. The program will feature speakers and general session speakers and medical exhibits.

Laboratory personnel, doctors, high school and college students interested in attending the sessions or exhibits should contact Miss Mary Ann Millard, 103 Roberts Lane, Belleville.

Terry Toth Elected Explorer Chairman

Terry Toth, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tibor Toth, 3328 Colgate Place, has been elected Explorer Planning Conference chairman of the Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Toth was elected chairman at an officers meeting attended by 63 officers, from 22 Explorer posts representing more than 400 Explorers in parts of Madison and Bond counties.

Toth currently is president of Explorer Post 104, a law enforcement specialty post sponsored by the Madison Lions Club and the Madison Police Department.

Elected vice-chairman was Maurice Dailey, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dailey, 64 Oaklawn Drive. Dailey is past president of Explorer Post 69 sponsored by Miles Laboratories, Inc., and a member of the council executive board.

The planning conference committee has the responsibility to plan and conduct Explorer events at a council level. The first event to be held will be the Explorer Olympics, to be scheduled next month.

Dave Wilson, 3245 Kilarney Drive, is adult advisor to the planning committee and Robert Winschief of the local professional staff is advisor to the Explorer Committee.

Seven Earn Honors At Carbondale Campus

Seven area students have been placed on the dean's list for academic achievement during the winter quarter at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

Making perfect grade averages were Patricia Ann Schmidt, 2120 Manley Ave., and William R. Cavasher, 523 Leslie St., Madison.

David L. Allen, 3711 Namrock Road; Mary F. Chapman, 2822 Pershing Ave.; James Michael Fann, 2653 Washington Ave.; Janet L. Johnson, 2023 Johnson Road; and Margaret M. Karpowicz, 3305 Princeton Drive.

Price Joins Move to Gain Youth Program Renewal

Congressman Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis) has announced that he has joined a bipartisan group of Congressmen in sending a letter to President Nixon urging him to continue Federally supported summer youth programs. In conjunction with the letter President Nixon requested additional funds for summer youth programs.

Cong. Price explained "the letter was in response to the widely publicized reports that the Administration had no plans to repeat either the Recreation Support Program or the summer Transportation Program and that, in addition, it planned severe cut-backs in the Neighborhood Youth Program."

"It is my opinion," he stressed, "that these cutbacks would have tragic consequences. Our letter pointed out that these programs have been exceptionally helpful to America's cities in developing sorely needed employment, educational, and recreational opportunities for our nation's disadvantaged youth."

Mr. Price explained that in the summer of 1970, the Federal Government provided 43,000 Neighborhood Youth Groups slots nationally for $18.6 million and that each slot represented ten 26-hour work weeks for which enrollees were paid $1.40 an hour. This summer the Administration had been planning to provide 414,200 slots for only $16.7 million and that each slot would represent eight 26 work weeks for which enrollees would be paid $1.60 an hour.

"The letter," he continued, "urged President Nixon to increase the number of Neighborhood Youth Corps positions to 630,000 and to fund them for ten 32-hour work weeks. In addition, it urged him to insure the repetition of both the Recreation Support and the Transportation Assistance Programs."

"It is essential that the funding of our cities' summer park and recreation programs be continued and expanded," Mr. Price concluded.

Acre of Art Show to Be Held on May 3

The annual Acre of Art Show will be held in the Memorial gymnasium on Monday, May 3, from 6 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., displaying all types of art work produced during the year from kindergarten to grade 12. It was announced this week by Eugene Alassi, supervisory consultant for art education of Granite City schools.

Art work taken from various schools will cover the entire gymnasium floor and walls being placed in specific areas for each school.

The Acre of Art Show is sponsored by the Area Parent-Teacher Association and the Art Education Department of Granite City.

Park District Accepting Mun Opera Reservations

Reservations are now being accepted at the Granite City Park District office for the pre-season special productions as well as the regularly scheduled shows to be presented at the St. Louis Municipal Opera, Harold Brown, park superintendent, announced today. Patrons may call the park office at 877-3865 for tickets.

Stuttgart Ballet, "Hello Dolly," featuring Pearl Bailey, and "Applause," starring Lauren Bacall, are the first three pre-season productions of the 1971 summer season.

These productions, along with special shows, are "package deals" whereby the entire company travels together. Consequently the cost of tickets is slightly higher than the shows regularly produced in St. Louis.

"Applause" is expected to be the big seller this year. Miss Bacall will come direct to St. Louis from New York with the entire Broadway cast for the show starting July 5 through July 11. Ticket prices to be announced later.

The last time "Hello Dolly" with Pearl Bailey was presented in St. Louis the show was a sell-out. Tickets are $3.65 for the show scheduled June 28 to July 3.

Beginning July 19, the regular Muny Opera season begins and all of the shows will be produced in St. Louis. The cost of these will be the same as last year. All listed prices include bus transportation.

As in the past, park district tickets will be for every Tuesday evening and the bus will leave from the ice rink and take the local patrons to the opera entrance. Buses will pick up the patrons there at the end of the performance. The week of the special shows, additional service will be provided.

The list of special shows at a ticket cost of $8.40 will include: Glen Campbell Show, July 12; Ann Margaret Show, July 13; Jim Nabors Show, July 15 and 16; Robert Goulet Show, July 18, July 14, 17 and 19 will be announced later.

Reservations also are being taken for the regular season's musicals, starting July 19, with "Sweet Charity," featuring Juliet Prowse. Tickets are priced at $5.40.

"Music Man" on July 26 to August 1; "Two By Two," Aug. 2 to Aug. 8; "Unsinkable Molly Brown," Aug. 9 to Aug. 15; "Cabaret," Aug. 16 to Aug. 22; and "Kismet" and "1776" on Aug. 23 to Aug. 29. The Aug. 30 to Sept. 5 show will be announced later.

Local residents who wish to attend any of the shows are urged to make reservations a week or two before the show, through the park office, to be assured of getting tickets.

Plans New Series of Reciprocity Plates

A determined move to upgrade the issuance of Illinois reciprocity plates, Secretary of State John W. Lewis has announced a new 1971-72 series for the first change of plates since 1967.

The current 1967 series will be retired on July 1 and notices of the change along with Illinois reciprocity qualification forms have been mailed to 39,000 out-of-state applicants.

Secretary Lewis warned the applicants that any motor vehicle must file a new Illinois reciprocity qualification form.

The forms must be filed with the Secretary of State no later than the July 1 deadline with a statutory fee of $1.00 for each reciprocity plate.

"Ils Sont Magnifique!" Keds® Grasshoppers®

We interrupted the vacation of a noted French fashion authority, to get his reaction to the new Keds Grasshoppers Casuals. Here's what he said: "Women will adore the Grasshoppers Casuals. The styles, the colors are magnificent. And the price of these charming shoes is so reasonable! I love the girls... naturally. I love Grasshoppers, too. They are always so smart!"

Karen Romine Heads New GC Future Secretaries

Karen L. Romine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Romine, Tri-Cities, Alton and Springfield, was chosen as president of the new chapter of the Future Secretaries Association at Granite City High School.

Other elected officers include Dreama K. Landys, vice-president; Donna R. Cain, corresponding secretary; Peggy Hightower, recording secretary; and Connie Kutosky, treasurer.

Glenn Hubart and Mrs. Judi S. Sparks will serve as faculty advisors. The sponsoring unit is the Tri-Cities Chapter of the National Secretaries Association. Serving as chairman of the FSA committee is Mrs. Charlene Vunovic, secretary to C. P. Whitehead, former president and chairman of the board of General Steel Industries.

FSA membership is restricted to secretarial students with above-average grades; unquestionable character and integrity; and who expressed an interest in secretarial work.

Forty future secretaries will be initiated at a joint initiation-installation ceremony to be held in May. The featured speaker will be Ed Kollag, executive director of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce.

Invitations will be extended to parents of the students as well as business education teachers and other high school personnel, and members of the 2121 Munley Ave., was chosen field chapters of the National Secretaries Assn.

Benefits will also be obtained through their association with professional secretaries and other students who have many interests in common and through the planned educational programs to be presented at monthly meetings.

McKendree to Institute New Calendar Plan

Dean Emerial Owen of McKendree College has announced that the trustees have approved a new school year schedule change. This change will take effect next fall.

The new program is called "Four-One-Four," "4-1-4," calendar and will replace the current semester plan. Instead of two semesters and a summer session, there will now be three terms and a summer session.

Here is how it works.

The fall term will start in September as usual but end at the Christmas vacation. It will be four months long and finals will be held before the holiday break. Then after New Year's when the final month of the old first semester would have been, there will be a 1 month term called an "interim term." One course can be taken for credit or academic trips can be scheduled during this period. After this term of intensive training, the spring term begins. This will be four months long and end when the old second semester ended. Then a regular summer session will follow.

Why cut up the school year this way? To allow better use of faculty, facilities, and most importantly students' time. Under the 4-1-4 a student may complete a four-year course in 3 years.

This is made possible by attending summer school and capitalizing on the 1 month "interim" term. Not only can the pre-professional students spend less years working to become doctors or lawyers, but all students can speed up their education, cut costs, and receive a more intensified background.

A chance for householders to get rid of old bottles and stacks of newspapers stored in garages and basements areas and, at the same time, support a local effort to promote recycling of waste material will be offered Quadt-Cityans Saturday.

The ecology-cleanup project will be co-sponsored by youth members of the Green Earth Committee and United Fund agency. Assistance in the form of three large trucks will be furnished by local contractor, G. H. Sternberg, and the St. Louis General Paper Stock Co.

The trucks will be stationed on the front parking area at Nameoki Village Shopping Center from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday.

Youthful volunteers from the community will accept the bottles and papers from residents at the site and have agreed to separate and load the items into the trucks, according to C. A. MacMillan, CYC executive director and Paul Caban, Green Earth Committee member.

The group also is willing to pick up from individual residences any substantial quantity of paper or bottles, the spokesman said. Persons wishing to have large amounts of bottles or paper collected at their home are asked to call 876-2383 prior to Saturday.

Proceeds from the collection project will be used toward a continuing public education program on the benefits of recycling waste material as a conservation effort, MacMillan advised.

It was learned that volunteer committee members have spent $22 in their own funds to advertise the collection project and to alert citizens on the need to support recycling and conserve natural resources.

Federal Support
President Nixon recently ordered all federal agencies to buy recycled paper for at least one-third of their total need to promote the local collection drive reported. They also noted that it takes 17 mature trees to make one ton of paper. Strict measures restricting or banning use of non-returnable containers are being considered by legislators in many states, including Vermont, Hawaii, Massachusetts, Missouri and Arkansas.

Recycling already has become a way of life in thousands of households across the country, usually after drives similar to the one planned here Saturday were conducted, Caban said.

"People are saving bottles, cans and newspapers for recycling in hundreds of other communities and we believe local residents will do the same given an opportunity to deposit their collection," the Green Earth Day committee chairman said.

Primary reasons for Americans to become aware of recycling are mainly environmental—litter is reduced; natural resources are conserved; and the mountains of solid waste produced daily hopefully will be reduced somewhat, the campaign sponsors said. Owens-Illinois Glass Corp. at one of the first area firms to accept bottles for recycling, is now taking more than 100,000 pounds of glass each week.

An executive of another glass producing firm which only recently began accepting glass jars and bottles commented that much of the glass will be made into new bottles, but also can be used as an ingredient in asphalt or in producing materials such as bricks and insulation.

Last month, American Can Co., 3200 S. Kingshighway, and Continental Can Co., 7140 N. Broadway, St. Louis, began accepting discarded cans for recycling. Both firms have placed huge trash bins on their property in which anyone can deposit cans for recycling, it was learned.

Man Fined $50, Jailed

Gordon Allen Thompson, 48, of 2128 Cleveland Blvd., was fined $50 and sentenced to six days in the Madison County Jail Monday by Magistrate Joseph Kelleher on a charge of driving without a valid license. He was arrested the same day at 21st Street and Edison Avenue.

NOT A BAD DAY'S WORK. In one afternoon, Elmer Reinhardt, left, Pete Kriehok, center, and Dale Maxville, reeled in these bass in a fishing tournament in Norfolk, Ark. The catch ranges from one and one-half to eight and one-half pounds. Kriehok won the trophy for the most white bass.

River Festival Set July 10-Aug. 15

The Board of Directors of the Mississippi River Festival voted Monday to hold the Festival July 10 through Aug. 15 on the campus of Southern Illinois University—Southwestern, a 100-acre campus not yet been developed.

In a joint statement issued after the meeting, board president Nicholas P. Veeder and SU-SW Chancellor John S. Rendleman explained that the decision to go ahead with the festival had to be made at this time so artists could be engaged and ticket sales begun.

"It is essential that we have the next three months working time to assure that this festival will be even greater than the first two," Veeder said.

Dr. Rendleman stressed that the $100,000 needed to underwrite the festival remains to be raised. SIU has contributed to the festival's last two seasons, but was forced to withdraw financial support because of its own fiscal crisis this year.

"We are working closely with the Festival board and the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra to locate the funding needed to make the festival a permanent cultural bridge between Missouri and Illinois," Rendleman said.

Symphony Quota $40,000

Peter Pastrich, managing director of the festival and executive director of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, said that in addition to the $150,000 underwriting required, the St. Louis Symphony Society must raise $40,000 to meet its financial commitment to the festival.

The Illinois Arts Council has appropriated $50,000 to assist in financing the festival. A request for $25,000 is pending before the Missouri State Council on the Arts. In addition, a number of music-loving cities have formed the Pyramid Committee, an organization which is working to raise funds through a series of parties at which each guest contributes $1. The Women's Association of the St. Louis Symphony Society has announced its intention to match the first $20,000 raised by Pyramid.

The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra is scheduled for 12 weekend festival performances 6:30 p.m. July 10, 11, 17, 18, 24, 25, 31, and Aug. 1, 7, 8, 14 and 15.

Conductor and music director Walter Susskind will conduct four of the concerts. Assistant conductor Leonard Slatkin will be on the podium for three, and guest conductors will be announced for the remainder.

The festival also will feature 6 to 12 folk or pop-rock events from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday at Bellemore Shell Service Station, Nameoki and Johnson Roads.

New Explorer Post to Hold Car Wash Saturday

Newly-formed Explorer Scout Post 23 will hold a car wash from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday at Bellemore Shell Service Station, Nameoki and Johnson Roads.

Scouts will be assisted by members of the post's sponsoring organization, the Bubble-masters Scuba Diving Club.

Water Company Approves New City Franchise Bill

A water franchise agreement with the East St. Louis & In-terurban Water Co. that will mean a savings of $500,000 to Granite City over the 30-year life of the pact has been approved by the water company council members were informed during regular meeting Monday night.

The company notified the city that it has accepted in its entirety a water franchise ordinance approved by the council Feb. 15 following lengthy negotiations between a city council committee headed by Sixth Ward Alderman Gerald Parmley and water company representatives.

On a motion by Parmley the council ordered City Clerk Robert Stevens to make the notice of acceptance a part of the council minutes.

The agreement was drafted in a series of 16 negotiation sessions. Parmley said the agreement will mean a savings of $100,000 in water fees and services during the first five years of the agreement. It is the first franchise the city has had with the water company in 23 years.

The franchise provides free water for the city hall, the city garage, three fire stations, the animal shelter and the civil defense headquarters. These facilities have been using 146,000 cubic feet of water per year at a cost to the city of $1,288 per year.

It provides another 180,000 cubic feet of water without cost for other municipal facilities at an additional savings of $1,283 per year.

The agreement also calls for every fourth fire hydrant to be rent free. The city now rents 418 fire hydrants at a cost of $40.80 each or a total annual cost of $20,633. With 25% of the plugs rent free, the city will save another $5,158 per year.

Strikes Stopped Auto
The auto of Ivann Hill, 2431 Pine St., collided with the rear of the stopped auto of Sandra Ambush, 2337 Paul St., this week in the 2300 block of Pontoon Road. The front of Hill's auto and the rear of the Ambush vehicle were damaged.

Regional Report--Agreement on Road Construction Hiring

(Illinois Metro East Regional Development Corporation)

Voters in East St. Louis School District 189 elected four new members to the board of education, defeating all incumbents. All of the new members, Frederick Boyd, Fred Kimbrough, Homer Randolph and Sister Annalinda Heister, are professional educators and are pledged to work together to improve the quality of education in the district.

Sixteen other communities held school board elections. In other education news the Lewis and Clark Community College will receive accreditation from the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

The accreditation is to be transferred from Monticello College to Lewis Clark effective July 1 when the new junior college takes over the historic women's school.

Two incumbents, Paul Connolly and Robert Minsker, were re-elected to the Lewis and Clark board of trustees for three-year terms, Paul B.

Hanks was re-elected as president of the junior college board. A temporary agreement between contractors and labor unions was reached, aimed at resuming all highway construction in Madison and St. Clair Counties.

Under the agreement, contractors will hire a force of 20% black workers on highway jobs.

The agreement will remain in effect until a federal court rules on a suit filed by Southern Illinois Contractors Association and Southern Illinois Builders Association.

They are contesting the hiring plan devised by Gov. Richard Ogilvie.

The Illinois Division of Highways for the first time has awarded contracts for major construction work to a company headed by a Negro, Floyd Thacker.

Mr. James is employed in management information systems, Army Aviation Systems Command (AVSCOM), St. Louis. John Sperla Jr., right, deputy office chief, makes the presentation.

Salvation Army to Install Officers at Award Dinner

Richard West, chairman of the lay advisory board of the Salvation Army, will be installed with other newly elected officers in his second term of office during ceremonies to be held at Nidringhaus United Methodist Church.

The installation will be held in connection with the Salvation Army's annual Civic Appreciation and Award dinner in Wesley Hall at 6:30 p.m. when local organizations will be honored for their volunteer activities.

Other officers include Claude Echols, vice-president; Mrs. Elvira Thurber, secretary; Roy Lynn, treasurer, and a new board member, Andrew Parker.

Organizations to receive awards for their contributions to Salvation Army projects will include Beltingers in the 1970 Tree of Lights campaign.

They are the Tri-City Shrine Club, Business and Professional Women and the Granite City Rotary Club. Honorable mention will be given to Moose Lodge 272, the Chamber of Commerce Youth Committee and Kiwanis Club.

Major Earl Polesky, Salvation Army Divisional Youth Secretary for Missouri and southern Illinois, will be the principal speaker. It was announced by Lt. Donald Noyes, Quad-City area Salvation Army Corps.

Drug Charges Bring Six Months Sentence

Gerald L. Carney, 24, of Granite City, was placed on probation for one year provided he spend six months on the state prison farm at Vandalia after he pleaded guilty to charges of possession of a dangerous drug and possession of hypodermic syringes before Magistrate Joseph Kelleher Monday afternoon.

He was arrested last Jan. 6 on a traffic charge and the drugs and equipment were found on him as he was being booked, authorities said.

Disappearance of Records From State Office Probed

By IRA TEINOWITZ
Press-Record Springfield Correspondent

Sangamon County State Attorney Richard Hollis currently is investigating the disappearance and possible destruction of state personnel records and contracts during the changeover period from former Governor Dan Rostenbly to Governor Richard Ogilvie.

Hollis has asked Bakalis to supply him with information on:—Specifically where the files were kept. What room?

—Who was in charge of the files. What secretary and what department head.

—Whether the files were required to be kept by statute.

—Whether Bakalis could supply him with an example of one of the few personnel files that did not disappear.

—What the payroll was, what kind of information is needed to make it up and how it is made up.

—Whether there are demands for payments of contracts for which Bakalis can not find the contracts.

—Whether there are any obligation outstanding on the disappearing contracts.

When Bakalis became superintendent early in January, he found personnel records missing and the original copies of state contracts gone.

Sign Affidavits

At the time, a few of his employees said they knew of the destruction of the records and signed affidavits to that effect. The affidavits are being sent to Hollis.

According to a spokesman for Bakalis, employees in Page's office were asked if they wanted their personnel file and if they didn't want them the files disappeared.

State law says records needed to operate a state agency are not to be destroyed. Maximum penalty for destruction of state records is five years in prison and a $1,000 fine.

The lack of personnel files delayed the firing of Republican employees of the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction. Many of the employees have since been replaced by Democrats.

The investigation came at the request of Bakalis. Originally he wrote a letter to Attorney General William Scott requesting an investigation, but Scott has referred it to Hollis who has jurisdiction under state law.

Until Hollis gets the information from Bakalis, he said he was unable to determine if grand jury will be impeached.

Moore Officers to Be Installed Sunday

Virgil Singler of Granite City will be installed as Governor of the Law of the State of Missouri in ceremonies to be conducted at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Moose Home, 19th and Adams Streets.

Senior Past Governor Malford Morris will officiate during the program and Past Governor Clarence Meyenburg will serve as installing sergeant at arms.

Women of the Moose Granite City Chapter will assist with the arrangements.

Other officers include Charles Schaefer, junior governor; Albert Belt, secretary; John Noonan, prelate; O'Neil Smith, treasurer; Ollie Thompson, junior past governor; Malford Morris, sergeant-at-arms; Thomas Simmers, inner guard; Charles Sabo, outer guard and trustees, Richard Dowdy, Eugene Hancock and Darrell Hamilton.

A luncheon will be served at 5 p.m. and music for the evening will be furnished by Bill Bernt's orchestra.

Couple Observes 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Frazier Jr., 2128 Garfield Ave., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at an open house at the Nameoki United Methodist Church during the weekend.

The celebration was arranged by their children, Misses Gail and Bev Frazier and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Frazier.

A large tiered wedding cake decorated in silver and white formed the centerpiece for the refreshment table which held an arrangement of pink and white carnations. Behind the table was a white trellis decorated with pink roses, white bells and pink and white streamers.

The guests called from 7 until 9:30 in the evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schwarzkopf, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Reuter, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rains, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Nicol, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Blanche Reimers, Mr. and Mrs. Glyn Hodge, Mrs. Irena Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Key and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. Gill Robeff, Mrs. Helen Holder, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bailey and son, Victor Koenig, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Luckert, Mr. and Mrs. B. Russell.

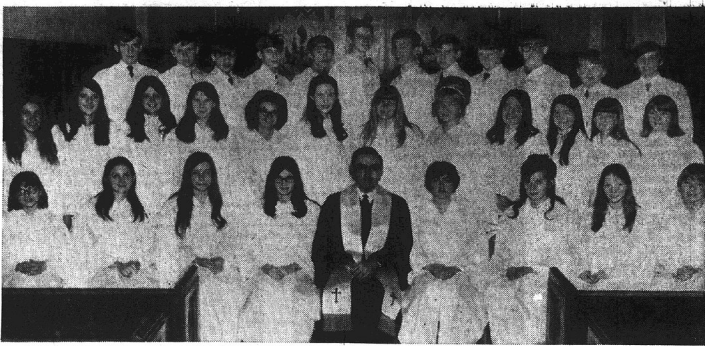

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hoedebeck, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bude, Mrs. Evelyn Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Al Taylor and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yeach, Mrs. Jewel Everett and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holt and Mr. and Mrs. John Douglas were guests from out of the city.

TRIO TO APPEAR AT 1ST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Good New Trio from Kenney, Ill., will present a special Gospel concert Sunday morning at 10:30 at First Christian Church, 2904 Maryville Road.

The trio has sung in many concert and revival services in Illinois and neighboring states, as well as making a number of recordings.

The Rev. James A. Graddy is pastor of First Christian Church.

Hanks-Klug Wedding at Hope Lutheran Church

Arrangements of white gladiolus and baby's mums on the altar, and lighted candles in white candelabra, furnished the setting for the wedding April 17 at Hope Lutheran Church of Miss Mary Ruth Klug and William E. Hanks.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Klug of Rural Route One, East Alton, and William S. Hanks and the late Eleanor Hanks of Edwardsville.

The soloist, Mrs. Alice Land, was accompanied by Albert Froemling, organist, as she sang "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee," "How Great Thou Art," and "Wedding Prayer." "Jesus Joy of Man's Desiring" was used as the processional.

The Rev. J. Louis Oetting officiated at the 7 o'clock ceremony which was followed by a reception dinner and dance at the VFW Hall in Granite City.

A floor-length Empire gown of white dotted swiss was worn by the bride. The bodice featured a high collar and full bishop sleeves. The A-line skirt and waist were trimmed with Venise lace and a long silk illusion veil and short veil were edged with lace. The bride held a teardrop bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid corsage.

Miss Arlene Klug was maid of honor for her sister, and Mrs. Henry Soehlin and Miss Janet Jones were bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in white dotted swiss over pale blue tulle. The gowns had high collars and the long skirts were encrusted with lace. Blue bows accented the backs of the dresses and streamers fell from the collars the full length of the skirts. Brief blue veils were held in place with large dotted swiss bows and they carried bouquets of carnations tinted blue, with blue streamers and greenery.

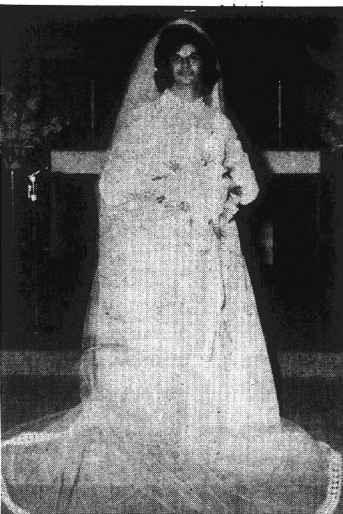

Two little flower girls, Cheryl Ann Soehlin and Paula Kay East, were dressed like the older attendants. They held nosegays of the same flowers.

Melvin Hanks was his brother's best man, serving with Henry Soehlin, and Paul East, a cousin of the bride, as groomsmen, and James Hanks, another brother of the bridegroom, and Donald Kuetha, a cousin, ushers.

Miss Nancy Accola of Denver, Colo., presided over the guest book at the reception. Others assisting were Mrs. James Hanks, Miss Debbie Goff and Miss Linda Bode.

The former Miss Klug, a graduate of the East Alton-Wood River High School, is employed in the offices of the Malinckrodt Chemical Works Credit Union in St. Louis.

Mr. Hanks graduated from the Edwardsville schools. He is employed by the Olin Mathieson Corp., in East Alton. The couple is residing in Edwardsville.

RECENT BRIDE, Mrs. William E. Hanks, the former Mary Ruth Klug, who was married April 17 at Hope Lutheran Church.

MRS. CONARY IS CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Nettie Conary was hostess to the Past-Chief's Association of Pythian Sisters Monday at her home, 2521 Edison Ave.

A noon luncheon was served and Mrs. Lillian Chepley, president, conducted a brief business session. Games followed and prizes were won by Mrs.

Chepley, Mrs. Nell Hutchison, Mrs. Martha Montague and Mrs. Fern Eggle.

Others present were Mrs. Linda Schlingman of Collinsville, who received the attendance award, Mrs. Ella McKittrick, Mrs. Olivia Lehman and Mrs. Elizabeth Bost.

The next meeting May 17 will be with Mrs. Eggley, 2828 Grand Ave.

MRS. WARREN H. STEFFENS. The former Miss Judy Ann Federspiel, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weber N. Federspiel of Ladue, Mo., whose wedding took place at St. Louis Cathedral.

Steffens-Federspiel Wedding at Cathedral

Miss Judy Ann Federspiel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weber N. Federspiel, 14 Deer Creek Woods, Ladue, Mo., was married to Warren H. Steffens, son of Mrs. Henry S. Steffens, 9105 Meadowbrook Lane, Overland, Mo., and the late Mr. Steffens, April 17.

The ceremony took place at 12 noon at the St. Louis Cathedral, with the Rev. John A. Dienthafer officiating. A reception was held at Glen Echo Country Club following the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Mr. Federspiel is comptroller and assistant secretary of Granite City Steel Company.

Mrs. Gregory J. Downey, the bride's sister, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas E. Grandcolas of Belleville, Mrs. James Hendrian of Decatur, Miss Sharon Lowe, Mrs. Robert Paster and Miss Marlene Polewski.

Flower girls were Misses Christine and Deborah Grandcolas. Gordon Steffens served as his brother's best man. Ushers were William Bayer, Richard Copeland, Gregory J. Downey, the bride's brother-in-law, Jack W. Federspiel, brother of the bride, and George Samoska, Dennis Piazza and Dwight Stevens, cousins of the groom. Master Gregory Downey Jr., a nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride attended Loretto Heights College, Denver, Colo., and received her Bachelor of Science degree from St. Louis University.

Mr. Steffens received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Missouri, Columbia, where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. Both the bride and groom are candidates for a Master's degree in Business Administration at St. Louis University.

After a wedding trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the couple will live in Creve Coeur.

Dr. Raymond Troyer to Head CYS Board

Dr. Raymond E. Troyer, professor of psychology and guidance counseling at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, will head the Coordinated Youth Services board of governors the next 12 months.

He succeeds at board president, Vasil Eftimoff, who was honored with presentation of a plaque, at a meeting last week, in recognition of his service to the United Fund-supported youth agency.

Eftimoff, director of Pupil Personnel Services in the Granite City school system, has served as CYS board president two years and a volunteer agency director for 10 years.

Other officers, elected for vice-president; Wade James, treasurer; and Mrs. James Henderson, secretary.

Installation of new officers, Judge Joseph Kelleher discussed the court's utilization of counseling services offered through the CYS program for first offenders.

In addition to his faculty assignment at the SIU-SW campus, Dr. Troyer is a past president of the Quad-City Ministerial Association and the Granite City Optimist Club. Prior to joining the SIU faculty in 1960, he taught at Mostarda Eastern State University in Billings.

The new CYS president is active in community affairs and, 1971-72 were Philip Dressel, with an associate, has conducted a series of area-wide workshops dealing with parent-child relationships. He received his Doctor of Philosophy degree in Psychology from the University of Chicago.

Dr. Troyer has worked for several years in counseling programs sponsored by the local youth agency, and has served on the board of governors which consists of 24 area civic and youth leaders.

According to C. A. MacMillan, CYS executive officer, the directors recently voted to expand board membership to include three youth representatives, one each from the Madison, Venice and Granite City high schools.

Officials Take Part In Prayer Breakfast

"Unity Through Prayer" was the theme of the third annual prayer breakfast sponsored by the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club, held this week at the Rose Bowl restaurant.

White ceramic praying hands were used as centerpieces, and the speakers' table held white vases of mixed yellow flowers. A breakfast buffet was served. The meeting was called to order by the club president, Mrs. Emylee Alder. The pledge to the flag was led by Mrs. Marcela Ashford, chaplain.

The greetings and opening remarks were by the chairman of the breakfast, Mrs. Helen Christich, and introduction were made by Mrs. Liz Marzluft, first vice-president-elect of the club.

Special music was provided by "The Inspirational" of the City Temple Assembly of God Church, including "Try a Little Kindness," "I Just Came to Talk With You, Lord," and "Faith Is the Key."

A sermonette was delivered by the Rev. Dr. L. Jim Anstis, pastor of Central Christian Church. He spoke on "Prayer and the Power of Prayer" and closed by saying, "Prayer is a one-ness."

The featured speaker, Mrs. Paul Simon, wife of the Illinois lieutenant governor, said, "We are all trying for peace in our homes, in our city and in our country."

"Young people are looking at our system and asking, 'Does it really work?' I am thankful to all the men who are working in our government to bring peace."

They spend very long hours working at it. Credit at it. Credit to their wives, who are so understanding about the long hours they spend away from home, and to their families. Many of the family responsibilities are left to the wives."

She closed with the thought, "To work is to pray, and to pray is to work." She also used the prayer by St. Francis of Assisi.

Mayor John E. Lee of Venice said, "There are three things necessary for unity—prayer, attitude and our examples to others."

Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison said,

"The most powerful energy is not atomic energy, or any other power made by man, but the power of prayer."

Granite City officials present included Robert Stevens, city clerk, newly-elected Street Supt. Lionel Portelli and Aldermen Steve Busarich, Walter Nann and Emerald Daves.

Sheriff John Maeras and State Senator Sam Vadalabene were among those attending, and there were several women from other BPW clubs.

Also present from the BPW were a past state president, Dorothy Paddock, State Treasurer Catherine Burton and District Chairman Flo Read, plus members from Collinsville, East St. Louis, Cahokia and the Grand B's club. Other organizations represented included the Eagles and Shriners.

Co-chairman of the breakfast was Mrs. Sunshine Scruggs. Committee members were Genevieve Grady, Sylvia Wright, Verna Lengyel, Ruth Houser, Lil Marzluft, Bonnie Lazenby, Ruth Milhouser, Mary Batson, Elva Ortiz, Lorene Sadrakula and Alvinette Metcalf. Program co-ordinator was president-elect, Mrs. Pauline Weir.

The printed program urged "Take time to think; it is the source of power. Take time to play; it is the secret of perpetual youth. Take time to read; it is the fountain of wisdom. Take time to pray; it is the greatest power on earth. Take time to love and to be loved; it is a God-given privilege. Take time to be friendly; it is the road to happiness. Take time to laugh; it is the music of the soul. Take time to give; it is too short a day to be selfish."

Purpose of the prayer breakfasts is to seek divine guidance for local, state and national leadership, and to pray for a spiritual awakening for the nation.

Breakfast groups were begun in the early 1950s by a group of business executives and subsequently included leaders from various spheres of influence. The purpose was to foster faith, as revealed in the Bible and substantiated in experience.

From that beginning, such groups have spread into a national movement and to 32 other countries.

Each group and each breakfast is autonomous, being tied together only by mutual interest in the spiritual needs of the world.

In 1941, breakfast groups were begun in the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives. These groups have grown and provide fellowship and rapport among the men of Congress. Annual presidential breakfasts were started for members of the Cabinet, Congress, diplomatic corps and armed forces. They are held soon after the opening of Congress.

BRIDE-TO-BE, Miss Barbara Jo Fox, whose engagement to William F. Glowacki is announced.

The events are a reminder of the principles declared by President Abraham Lincoln in a speech at Edwardsville Sept. 15, 1858: "What constitutes the bulk of our liberty and independence? It is not our frowning battlements, or our bristling seacoasts, our Army or Navy."

"These are not our reliance against tyranny. All of these may be turned against us without our consent."

"Our reliance is in the love of liberty which God has planted in us. Our defense is in the spirit which prized liberty as the heritage of all men, in all lands everywhere. Destroy this spirit and you have planted the seeds of despotism at our own doors."

The Rev. Louis E. Hemmers, rector of St. George Episcopal Church in Belleville, and board member of the agency, will hold its annual report meeting Monday, at 6:30 p.m. at the Stoplight Restaurant in East St. Louis.

Glowacki-Fox Engagement

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Fox, 2606 Sunset Drive, of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Barbara Jo Fox, to William F. Glowacki, a son of Mrs. Betty Radzicki, 4006 Kirkpatrick Homes, and the late William P. Glowacki. The news was told at a party given by the bride-elect's parents in their home.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Tucker of Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox and children, Freddy and Sandy, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Voutopal, Miss Marlene Voutopal and David Towler, all of Granite City; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bell and children, Laura and Bonnie, of Edgemont; and Mrs. Don Foley and children, Timmy, Kevin and Donald, of Hazelwood, Mo. Misses Debbie and Janet Fox and Robin Radzicki.

Miss Fox and her fiancé are graduates of the Granite City High School and Mr. Glowacki is now serving in the U. S. Navy, stationed at Long Beach, Calif.

The bride-to-be is employed in the business office of St. Elizabeth Hospital. The wedding date was not announced.

The Rev. Terry Shea of St. Mark's Catholic Church, Venice, gave the benediction.

Mrs. Scruggs will be the chairman of the fourth annual prayer breakfast next year. Her co-chairman and committee will be announced in July.

Start Seedlings Indoors for Colorful Gardens

Persons who like to have a wide variety of colorful annual flowers, as well as biennials and some of the common herbaceous perennials, can grow their own plants in the home by following a few simple rules, says Gerald Coorts, associate professor of plant industries and ornamental horticulturist at Southern Illinois University Carbondale campus.

To have the plants ready to transplant in the flower garden during May, attention must be given to variations in germination and plant development time required for different species in the flower varieties. Flower species such as Balsam, Cockscomb, Marigold and Sweet Alyssum ought to be seeded indoors in mid-April and transplanted around May 1.

On the other hand, Bachelor's Button, Calendula, Cleome and Nasturtium can be seeded the third week of April while Cosmos and Zinnia should be planted the fourth week of April for transplanting during the second week of May.

Success in raising the flower seedlings indoors depends on having sunlight, the right temperature, some ventilation and water. A window with a southern or western exposure to sunlight is preferable for growing the plants. The sunlight should not be obstructed by window curtains, Coorts says.

For most seeds 68 degrees is the best temperature for germination. After the seeds have sprouted, a temperature of about 55 degrees is best for the developing plants. If they are in a room with higher temperatures, the plants will be weak and spindly.

On warm days the seedling should be given ventilation by opening the window. The seedlings ought to be watered often enough to keep them from wilting and saucers or trays placed under the containers to guard against water damage to the floor or furniture.

Seeds do not need especially rich soil for germination but it should be of fine texture and drain readily while holding moisture against drying out too quickly. A good soil mixture for seed germination can be made by mixing equal parts of good garden soil, peat moss and coarse sand.

Add to each bushel of this soil mixture three level tablespoons of superphosphate (0-20-0) and five tablespoons of limestone (not hydrated lime).

Mix all of the material thoroughly and, if possible, heat sterilize it at 180 degrees for 30 minutes. Then cool to room temperature and put into shallow wooden box or into flower pots for seeding.

Press the soil into all the corners, fill the containers to the top, level off without packing the soil and firm down enough to leave the surface about a half inch below the top edge.

In flower pots scatter seed on the surface, putting one flower variety per pot. If a shallow wooden box is used, form shallow rows in the soil about two inches apart. Put seeds of one variety in one or more rows as desired, label and cover lightly with the soil mixture as each variety is seeded. Do not seed too thickly, spacing seeds about one-eighth inch apart, the horticulturist stressed.

After covering the seed, water the container thoroughly with a sprinkling can. After the excess moisture has drained away, cover the containers with a double thickness of newspaper to keep the soil surface from packing down or crusting. Then put the seeded containers in the place for seed germination, checking daily.

Sprinkle with water as needed. As soon as the seeds start to germinate, remove the newspaper cover and give the appearing seedlings the advantage of full light in a sunny window.

When the seedling develop the first set of leaves, or can be handled conveniently, transplant them to other pots or containers, placing the plants about two inches apart to permit good top and root development.

After all frost danger is past and weather and soil are favorable for outside work and plant growth the plants can be replanted where wanted in the garden or lawn borders to bring colorful beauty and enjoyment to the home. There also will be the added pleasure of having grown your own flowers from seeds, Coorts noted.

What's in a Company Name? State Law Includes a Few Restrictions

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Association)

Can you call a corporation by any name you choose?

What about the use of "limited" or "inc." as we are accustomed to seeing behind the names of English and Canadian companies?

The law of Illinois gives broad discretion to a person or persons in choosing the name for a new corporation, but there are some limitations.

The Business Corporation Act provides that a corporation may use the name of an Illinois corporation, or a name that is deceptively similar. The same restriction applies to the use of names of out-of-state companies authorized to do business in this state.

Most people believe that only foreign companies use the word "limited" to indicate their corporate status, but Illinois law specifically authorizes its use.

The most common way to indicate that a business is incorporated is, of course, "incorporated," but the use of "company," "corporation," or abbreviations of these.

Co-operative relations are required to use the word "co-operative" in their titles.

The law also prohibits the use of a word or phrase that indicates or implies that it is the formal approval of the State or that it is not authorized by the Business Corporation Act.

Banks and railroad operations are not included in this law, and are subject to different laws.

Anyone wishing to form a corporation, but not yet ready to file the formal application, may apply to the Illinois Secretary of State for a reserved corporate name.

If the name is available for use, the Secretary of State will reserve it for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of 90 days.

Incorporated businesses enjoy a special status under the law, such as the right to issue stock, plus certain tax advantages, and it is for this reason that they are required to identify their form of organization in the corporate name.

If you would like information about the legal aspect of organizing your own business, write for the free pamphlet "Starting A Business."

Send your request to the Illinois State Bar Association, Illinois Bar Center, Springfield, Ill. 62761. Please include a self-addressed, business-like envelope.

would receive depends on the level attained by National Steel stock; the merger agreement stipulates a 1-to-2 1/2 ratio. If it is $45, the price for each of the 3,448,989 Granite City Steel shares would be $20.25, less than the book value of $26.05 but well over the $11-$16 range of recent months.

The indicated $86 million transaction compares with estimates that twice that amount or more would be required to duplicate the local plant's modern facilities and equipment.

Balancing the bargain price would be the fact that new owners inherit whatever operating cost problems may have developed over the years.

Although earning only 1.8% on its sales in 1970, Granite City Steel has felt it was making significant gains toward the kind of productivity necessary to reward stockholders and to both generate and attract funds. National Steel undoubtedly is convinced that whatever streamlining is required can be carried out successfully.

If Granite City Steel becomes a subsidiary of National Steel, the ownership will no longer have a bit of the kind of uncertainty that may develop in the minds of some employees, at least temporarily. But the merger could have far more advantages than disadvantages for everyone, and we trust that all parties will do all in their power to achieve just such a result.

Third Concert Season Can Be the Best; Contributions, Ticket Sales Are Needed

Applause! Applause!

There will be a third Mississippi River Festival—a starlit 1971 concert season featuring six to 12 folk, rock or popular music performances and 12 weekend appearances by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra July 10-11, 17-18, 24-25 and 31 and Aug. 1, 7-8 and 14-15.

To schedule musical artists and to launch ticket sales, MRF directors had to make a "go" or "no go" decision this week. Their vote was boldly in the affirmative, and planning is proceeding on a definite basis despite the fact that not all financing has yet been obtained.

Where will the $190,000 funds be obtained? Well, the Illinois Arts Council has approved $50,000, stipulating open public rehearsals, involvement of Illinois artists and composers, taping of concerts for re-broadcast and intensive efforts to develop the Illinois portion of the MRF audiences.

The St. Louis Symphony Society is contributing $40,000 as its commitment to the Festival. The Symphony Society's Women's Association will match the first $20,000 raised through pyramid parties, for a $40,000 figure. A request for $25,000 is pending before the Missouri State Council on the Arts. Albert Casens and Miss Frances A. Stamper are contributing $5,000 each.

Another artistry shows a need for another $25,000 to $30,000, depending on the Missouri Council's action; this balance will have to be made up through individual contributions and from whatever the pyramid social program raises above the initial $200,000.

Quad-Cityans and nearby Illinois and Missouri residents are in for a real treat this summer. Contributions now, followed by ticket sales, will assure that the third Mississippi River Festival will be even greater than the first two.

Name and address must accompany each letter but will not be revealed if anonymity is requested. Communications of less than 250 words will be given preference. All are subject to condensation and grammatical changes. Those libelous or not in good taste will be rejected or edited.

Home Town, where the Folks are Nicer, is Beautiful This Spring

To the Editor:

There will always be spring. Have we seen the gold of the forsythia in yards or the Japanese quince in flower, or the orange-red apricot but a combination of all?

Or the tulip tree petals or the violets making a carpet for the robin to stand on? Or the daffodils untroubled by the frost in the warm breeze while the fruit trees are blossoming overhead?

Or the pansies' faces as they greet you with "good morning" or the spirea as dainty as a pretty bride's veil? Or the lowly, unassuming dandelion glistening in the morning dew like 24-karat gold coins? Or the tulips just beginning to bud after a long winter's sleep?

Have we really seen these things and really heard the birds sing as they announce that another spring has come to Granite City—our home town, where the folks are nicer and the flowers are more beautiful than anywhere else?

Have we noticed these things and then remembered gratefully that God is in His Heaven and looking down at our community—and, hopefully saying, "I am well pleased with the good people in a tiny part of my Creation who are making progress in all good things these 70 years?"

I am happy to have been a part of this community since it was two years old. I have seen the progress from a town that had no sidewalks, five schools and few churches to a city of 12,000 with beautiful homes, excellent schools, well-attended churches and 400,000 books.

May we continue to show progress in all good things. Truly, there will always be spring.

ADVANTAGES OF AIRPORT OUTGROWTH INCONVENIENCE To the Editor:

Representative Symington and his son, Representative James Symington, have raised some doubt as to whether the new location of the airport, in fact, be located in Illinois, as has been recommended by several engineering studies.

As it has been pointed out, Symington's argument was based on STOL (short takeoff and landing) studies. Incidents of low clouds to begin development of an STOL airplane have only just been reported.

May we continue to show progress in all good things. Truly, there will always be spring.

Record

(First of two parts.)

Sometimes it is possible to get so close that "you can't see the forest for all the trees."

Residents of this region may have a bit of that kind of problem in considering Southern Illinois University, whose facilities extend into the Quad-City area and whose impact is nationwide and worldwide. We'll try to put SIU's "forest" into perspective in today's column and the next one.

Harold R. Fischer of Granite City, chairman of the SIU board of trustees, noted April 16 that the university has become the 17th largest in the United States.

His comment was made while addressing over 200 editors who are members of the Southern Illinois Editorial Association. We had an opportunity to attend the SIEA spring 1971 meeting, held at Carbondale.

The ranking of 17th largest is based on total enrollment. Students during the fall 1970 quarter totaled 37,543, with 13,700 at the Southwestern campus and 23,843 at Carbondale.

These statistics, provided to us by Bill Lyons, A. R. Howard and C. A. Frazer of the University News Service, do not include adult education or extension enrollments.

Construction of the first five buildings on the 2,000-acre local campus, situated 25 miles northeast of St. Louis, was completed in 1967.

A classroom structure and the library have been in use since the fall of 1968. The science, technology and communications building were completed during 1966; the university center was completed in early 1967.

A sixth building, providing general offices, was finished in 1968. The new building also uses facilities in Alton and East St. Louis.

No buildings are under construction at SIU-SW, reportedly a tightening financial noose under the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

Construction starts which have been budgeted call for a $7,742,200 business classroom building, a $6,523,650 education classroom structure and completion for $1,175,000 of the communications building.

A site on the local campus has been picked for a scheduled School of Dental Medicine. Existing SIU-SW facilities consist of:

Loveloy Memorial Library, $2,848,000; John Mason Peck Classroom Building, $3,557,723; Science and Technology Building, $3,457,299.

Communications Building, $4,527,299; University Center, $4,888,888; Heating and Refrigeration Plant, $1,158,158; General Offices Building, $3,140,000; University Center completion, $1,101,038; Support Services Building, $1,175,000; and family housing, $2,718,717.

The original SIU campus at the edge of Carbondale is slightly over 100 miles to the south and southeast of the Quad-Cities. Carbondale, which has a population of 25,200, is in the midst of an orchard, mining, general farming and hill-and-dale recreation area.

In addition to the Carbondale campus, there is a Vocational Technical Institute 11 miles to the east. Also in that vicinity are the Little Grassy Lake Outdoor Laboratory, eight miles south, and the university's Extension Farms and Forest—there's that word again—near Carbondale.

SIU is accredited by the major American accrediting agencies and has faculty or institutional memberships in more than 30 associations for higher education.

Who's in charge? Well, as a starter, there is the SIU Board of Officers, the board along with Chairman Fischer, who attained that post Feb. 10, are Vice-Chairman Ivan Elliott Jr. of Carbondale and the secretary, Dr. Martin Van Brown of Carbondale.

Other trustees are William W. Allen of Normal, Edwin Berry of Chicago, Harris Rowe of Jacksonville and Dr. Earl E. Walsh of Harrisburg, plus an ex-officio board member, Dr. Michael Bakalis, state superintendent of public instruction.

It may surprise some to see a Chicagoan in the list. Governor Richard B. Ogilvie has made it a practice to appoint members to spread the board membership over a wide area of the state.

As Trustee Allen reported in his luncheon address to the SIEA, 40% of the Carbondale students come from Chicago and Chicago-area counties.

The university administrative hierarchy is complicated at the moment, but it is not really true that the organizational chart resembles a plate of spaghetti.

Visible but no longer directly involved is Delyte W. Morris, who came to SIU as its eighth president in 1948 and became president emeritus in September 1970. He was introduced at the SIEA meeting last week and took part in flag-raising ceremonies at the new School of Journalism quarters in the Communications Building at the Carbondale campus.

Dr. James M. Brown serves as "chief of board staff" at SIU. Dr. Clarence W. Stephens is chairman of the University Administrative Council.

John S. Rendleman is chancellor of the local campus and Dr. Robert G. Laver fills the similar position at Carbondale. System vice-presidents are Dr. Ralph W. Ruffner (SIU-SW) and Dr. Isaac P. Brackett (Carbondale).

Editors in our group April 16 toured the new Journalism School facilities and also the historical residential building which was one of the factors leading to Dr. Morris' resignation as president. The university was assessed last year for allegedly lax fiscal procedures when the cost of the building rose to $1 million.

An SIU representative pointed out at the start of the tour that the "president's house" cost no tax.

When the construction project attracted criticism, W. Clement Morris, SIU-SW, reportedly sought to "take the heat off" by contributing the million dollars.

Although still not entirely complete, the building obviously is worth the investment in it.

The question which remains is whether there should have been such a lavish planning. But, in fairness, it should be noted that the house never was intended to be solely as the place for Dr. Morris' eventual successor to hang his hat.

What it is a three-phase building (not to be confused with the Higher Education Planning phase) which has drastically slowed down even non-lavish SIU construction.

The house consists of living quarters for a future SIU president who will encounter no problems in finding enough bedrooms and bathrooms in his family; an area in which to hold dinners and receptions for faculty members, students and distinguished guests; and rooms in which visitors—up to and including the President of the United States—can be accommodated for short stays.

No, we're not planning to move in; but there is no question but that the building can accommodate a considerable amount in attracting a president, whenever SIU decides it needs one.

Highlights include many spacious patios and an atrium, with a provision for swimming ponds and fountains.

Glass is used in profusion, sliding doors allowing easy access to walkways, patios and balconies. A ramp, wallpaper and wood panels provide attractive wall variety, and acres of walkways carpeting are to be installed.

It could well be named the Stone home, not only for its financial angel but for the use of stone used in the exterior and interior walls. Massive fireplaces add to the beauty of the design.

Clearly, one would not have to reside in the [Taj Mahal of Carbondale] very long to feel like a president—or like a millionaire.

'Good News' Distribution a Success, Copies Available at Eight Churches

Approximately 1,500 volunteers representing over 50 churches in the Quad-Cities combined forces this week in an attempt to place a free copy of the New Testament, "Good News for Modern Man," in every home.

Participating churches purchased 22,000 copies for distribution, and it has been judged a very successful and highly gratifying venture.

The cooperation of pastors and their congregations was "outstanding" from the beginning. Those who served on the various committees worked "diligently and skillfully" on their tasks, a spokesman said.

"The generous news coverage by the Press-Record, a vital necessity for such a project, is sincerely appreciated. And a special word of thanks is due to those persons who turned out in large numbers to do the actual work of distribution."

Rev. William D. Fester, chairman, said in a statement summing up the project.

"In such a large undertaking it is very possible that some homes may have been missed or overlooked. In that event, there are still some copies of 'Good News for Modern Man' available at the following churches," Rev. Fester said.

He listed:
Nameoki United Methodist Church, Pontoon Road and Primrose Avenue, St. John's Lutheran Church, 2001 St. Clair Ave., St. Joseph's Catholic Church, 21st and State Streets, Pontoon Beach Church of Christ, 4039 Pontoon Road, The United Methodist Church at Madison, Fifth Street and Ewing Avenue, Madison.

The Greater Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, 1635 Maple St., Venice. The First United Methodist Church of Venice, 225 Broadway, Venice.

The Mitchell United Presbyterian Church, Mitchell.

"Persons inadvertently omitted in the general distribution will bring up a copy at any of these churches," Rev. Fester added.

"It is our hope and prayer that we have sown the seeds of a spiritual revolution in the home of our communities that will bring forth fruit in due season."

INITIATE STATE PROGRAM. Principals presenting the pilot program for the 'Right-to-Read' plan sponsored by the Illinois Department of Public Instruction, are left to right, Walter Bishop, educational service region superintendent of Montgomery County; Mrs. Ruth Lahr, Granite City teacher and regional English Reading consultant for the state; Mrs. Jean Hall, Granite City teacher and consultant, and Mrs. Katie Wright, instructional media director for East St. Louis schools.

State Right-to-Read Plan Outlined to Educators

The Illinois state-wide "Right-to-Read" plan for which the first pilot program was completed recently in Montgomery County was outlined Wednesday to educational service region superintendents of Region Five in a program presented by Mrs. Ruth Lahr, a Granite City teacher for 19 years and now English Reading consultant of Regions Five and Six.

The Right-to-Read program and its successful application in the initial Montgomery County workshop was explained to the service region superintendents of 13 counties which make up Region Five, during a meeting in the Flaming Pit Restaurant at Edwardsville. Plans to expand the program to provide similar workshops in counties throughout the state also were announced.

Approximately 20 Montgomery County educators volunteered to participate in the pilot program at Litchfield which was co-sponsored by Walter L. Bishop, superintendent of the Montgomery Educational Service Region, and Dr. Michael Bakalis, Illinois superintendent of public instruction.

Dr. Paul E. Woods, director of Title III NDEA, approved funds for the initial program which was co-ordinated by Mrs. Lahr, assisted by Mrs. Jean Hall, reading consultant for Granite City schools, and Mrs. Katie Wright, instructional media director for East St. Louis schools.

Sale of $53,000 in Town Warrants OK'd

The Granite City Council, convened as the town board, approved Monday night a resolution authorizing sale of $25,000 in anticipation warrants for the general town fund and $28,000 in warrants for the general assistance fund.

The warrants will be sold to finance township operations until taxes are collected and distributed later this year. The warrants will bear interest of 5%.

The town board also approved general town fund bills totaling $3,749, and bills of $3,439 in the general assistance fund.

A resolution reappointing William W. Schooley of Granite City as township attorney for the 1971-72 fiscal year also was adopted.

James Watson Promoted To Superintendent Post

James F. Watson has been promoted to superintendent of the Pigott, Ark. factory of Brown Shoe Co., it was announced by Curtis R. Johnson, director of manufacturing.

Mr. Watson had been assistant superintendent of the Pigott factory since 1969. He is a brother of Everett Watson of Granite City. A native of Dexter, Missouri, he started with Brown in its Bernie, Missouri plant in 1960.

Groups Collect $625 In Heart Fund Event

A "special events" program in connection with the 1971 Heart Fund Drive was conducted during the weekend under the direction of Robert Fry, special events chairman, with a group of young people and members of the local Jaycees chapter making "road block" collections.

Boy Scouts with advisors, Jaycees and representatives from Niedringhaus United Methodist Church were stationed in downtown Granite City, the Nameoki and Pontoon Beach areas, and collected $625.74 for the Heart Fund.

Taking part in the project were Dawn and Sandra Voss from the Methodist Church; Al De Lay, Willie Johnson, Fred Haideman and Earl Warnhoff, all members of the Jaycees; Rollin Henn, past council president of Cahokia Mount Council; Boy Scouts and Raymond Gaudette Sr., advisor of Post 96.

Boy Scouts who assisted included Ricky and David Gaudette of Troop 98, Danny Morgin of Post 86, Terry Taylor and Jaime Durrett of Post 41; Donald Filkins, Kevin Myers, Mike Baxter, Bobby Montgomery and Dennis Warren, Troop 41; Willie Shoemaker and Mark Sparks of Post 96.

Three Tires Punctured

Three flat tires were found on a station wagon and another on a panel delivery truck owned by the Willis Flower Shop at Leonard and Buxton avenues, it was reported this week.

Leaders Named To Head Weekend Cancer Crusade

Earl Dotzauer, general chairman of the Quad-City Cancer Crusade, set for Saturday and Sunday here, today announced the names of community leaders who are heading the fund-raising drive in their specific areas.

Spearheading the door-to-door campaign in Venice is Mrs. John E. Lee, 1230 Klein St., with Mrs. Geisla Gott, 1639 Seventh St., Madison, leading the volunteers in that community.

Morris Miles, 118 Kinder Lane, is serving as drive chairman in the Mitchell area; Thomas Staloff, 3838 Lake Drive in Pontoon Beach; and Mrs. Fred Barr, Apt. 9, Fairway Estates, is coordinating the Arlington Heights door-to-door solicitations, Dotzauer said.

Theme of the American Cancer Society's 1971 Crusade is "We Want to Wipe Out Cancer In Your Lifetime," the general coordinator noted. He pointed out that statistics disclose one in four Americans now living, or two out of three American families, eventually will be struck by cancer.

Balancing the high rate of incidence is the fact that one out of every three patients is now being cured of cancer and continued research consistently enables the chances of a complete cure to be discovered, Dotzauer said.

"We urge everyone to give generously to this worthy cause when a volunteer worker calls at your home," the Cancer Crusade chairman stressed. Persons wishing to assist in the campaign may contact the leader in their home area, or call Dotzauer, at 452-1313.
